

8. When any person has ceased to hold a commission, he shall be liable to perform militia service in the ranks in the reserve or in the first class, according to his age.

9. The militia in each county shall be formed into regiments, the regiments shall be divided into companies, and the companies shall be divided into squads.

10. Regimental districts shall be determined by the lieutenant-colonels in each county; companies divisions by the lieutenant-colonel of and captain in each regiment, and squad divisions by captains of companies—all subject to the orders and approval of the Commander-in-chief.

11. The Commander-in-chief shall appoint commissioned officers, adjutants, and commissioned regimental staff, and make regulations for their attendance at drill and their examination for appointment and promotion. Any officer neglecting his duty, and failing to give satisfactory reasons for such neglect when called upon, may be deprived of his commission by the Commander-in-chief, or at the option of such officer, be brought before a court martial for trial. Militia regiments failing to organize or train, may be called out for muster or training under officers or non-commissioned officers of contiguous or other districts, at the discretion of the Commander-in-chief; and the officers so employed shall be paid four dollars a day, and non-commissioned officers two dollars—to be levied by assessment on the regimental district.

12. Adjutants shall be divided into first and second class, the latter to be designated acting Adjutants, and the former Adjutants.

13. Adjutants shall be entitled to receive forty dollars per annum, and acting Adjutants twenty dollars, to be drawn from the Provincial Treasury on certificate from the commanding officers of regiments, to which Adjutants of either class are attached, that they have faithfully performed the respective duties required of them; but no Adjutant shall receive any pay or allowances until he is certified by the Adjutant-General of Militia, that all the returns of his regiment are in up to date, and Adjutants behind hand in periodical returns shall forfeit their pay for the year unless otherwise ordered by the Commander-in-chief.

14. Under the orders of their commanding officers, Adjutants shall attend to field duties, the enrolment and organization of their regiments and such correspondence and returns as they may be commanded to conduct.

15. Acting Adjutants shall attend to the acquirement of field duties on opportunity being afforded them, and shall conduct all the other duties required from adjutants, until qualified as field adjutants, when they rank as first class on approval.

16. The Lieutenant-Colonels may appoint acting adjutants.

17. No acting adjutants, not being qualified, shall stand in the way of the promotion to the first class adjutancy of any officer who is qualified and willing to take the duty, and adjutants of either class may, on the report of an inspecting field
