CONSIDER FORDING COAL

At the forefront of the Canadian coal industry stands Fording. A leader in Canada's coal mining and international trade scenes, Fording operates one of the country's largest metallurgical coal mines, in southeastern B.C.

Dramatic new coal projects in Alberta, coupled with the demands of this large and vibrant company, create continuing career opportunities for the capable and ambitious.

Currently Fording has positions available to graduates and summer students in these areas of engineering — mining, civil, mechanical, metallurgical, mineral processing and agricultural.

Please check with your Canada Employment Centre on campus for detailed information on these and other positions. We will be recruiting on your campus this fall.
