Dramatic Society Presents "Fiddler"

By DAVE HARRIGAN March 13, 14, 15 are the dates the Dalhousie Glee and Dramatics acclaimed as one of the great-Society is presenting "Fiddler est shows, having played on on the Roof". With a large cast and technical crew hard at it, "Fiddler. ...", promises to be one of the greatest productions in the 82 year history of D.G.D.S. The cast has been rehearsing for rection of Ivan Blake.

"Fiddler" has been world-Broadway for nearly seven years! The setting is a little Jewish village in Czarist Russia. The humor and pathos is sure to delight everyone. Tunes such as "Sunrise, Sunset", "If I Were three full months under the di- a Rich Man", and "Tradition", will surely conjure up some shivers among even the hardhearted.

> Remember the dates for the show that will never be forgotten, "Fiddler on the Roof", March 13, 14 and 15 in the Student Union Building.
