

Yeomen swimmers place fourth, Harvey breaks OUAA records

A gold medal swim by the York freestyle relay team brought 200 cheering spectators to their feet at last weekend's Ontario University Athletic Association's swim meet at Guelph.

The combination of Neil Harvey, George Skene, Mark Langdon, and Graham Sutch in the 4x200 relay was one of several outstanding contributions which placed the Yeomen an overall fourth in the meet. The top three universities were U. of T., Waterloo, and Western.

Harvey also set OUAA records while bringing home golds in the 100 and 200 backstrokes. Langdon obtained bronze medals for the 1,650 yard freestyle and 400 yard individual medley, while Sutch was silver medal winner in the 500 yard freestyle. Harvey joined Arvids Silis, Cameron Rothery, and Gabor Mezo in the 4x100 medley relay to win another bronze.

Other standout performances by the Yeomen included the 100 yard freestyle swim by veteran Fred Bevan and the 200 and 500 yard freestyles by George Skene.

Skene qualified for the Canadian Intercollegiate Athletic Union championships, making a total of seven out of thirteen swimmers who will represent York at the CIAU meet.

"Only one swimmer qualified for York last year, 'The coaching has to be pretty good when such a big improvement can be shown," says Langdon of coach Byron MacDonald. "Byron's been in it (competition) recently so he still understands what the swimmers are going through."

The Yeowomen, who were led by Chris Lovett-Doust's gold medal swims in the 100 and 200 butterfly, finished sixth at the OWIAA championships in Sudbury. Lovett-Doust also obtained a bronze in the 200 yard free style York's Deedee Dermers and Liz MacGregor made finals in their events and made the times they needed to compete in the CWIAU championships.

U. of T. squeezed by Waterloo to win the Ontario title by only 15 points.

According to Demers coach Carol Gluppe is responsible for her success. "The hard work and tapering sequence Carol put us through really worked," says Demers. "I took an unbelievable number of seconds off my time."

CIAU and CWIAU championships will be held next weekend at the Etobicoke Olympian. Tickets are eight dollars for heats and finals.
