I have written Dr. Beland, telling him by all means to send in his manuscript to the Houghton Mifflin Company; and have also assured him that, of all publishers in the United States and Canada, he cannot expect to find any likely to take a keener interest in the circulation of his writings than the Houghton Mifflin Company in Boston and yourself in Toronto.

With the best of wishes for the New Year,
Believe me,

Yours very sincerely,

W. L. Mackenzie King Papers
