

The Barby chair, lectern and table were presented to the University by Irving E. Robertson, B.A. (Oxon) an alumnus of Toronto University and second son of Mr. Robertson.

The other chairs were presented to the University by Mr. Robertson at various dates between October, 1908, and Christmas Day, 1912. A brief history of the chairs is given herewith: