

Nous espérons que ce plan sera utile et satisfaisant.

Grâce à l'obligeance de Monsieur Harry Abbott, C.R., nous avons pu reproduire un extrait d'un travail d'une grande valeur fait par feu l'Honorable Sir J. J. C. Abbott, K. C. M. G., sur la question de savoir, qui est commerçant.

Afin de faciliter la distinction entre le texte même du Code, et les notes et commentaires placés audessous, des caractères différents ont été employés. Les articles du Code sont en long primer, les décisions judiciaires en bavier et les notes en non-pareil.

A number of useful forms are given in the Appendix.

By the kindness of Mr. Harry Abbott, Q. C., we have been permitted to reproduce in the text, a very valuable treatise, "Who is a Trader," by the last Honorable Sir J. J. C. Abbott, K. C. M. G., which would otherwise have remained out of print.

In order to facilitate distinction between the text of the law, and the notes and commentaries, different kinds of type have been employed. The articles of the Code appear in long primer, the authorities in bavier and the notes in non-pareil type.

The publisher desire to state that the English Editor is not responsible for the proof-reading of the English text. Mr Mitchell's unavoidable absence from Montreal at the time, the work was in the press, prevented him personally revising the proofs. The publisher trusts, therefore, that Mr. Mitchell will not be held responsible for any errors, typographical or otherwise, which may be found in the text.
