Quality

Quality is what we are continually looking out for. No matter how cheap an article is it must be good before it finds a place in our stock. Those figs we are selling at 5c a lb. are good. Some cheap figs we have seen this year are poor, the skin is tough and a number have black seeds, but the ones we sell are fresh and tender, and we have yet to find one black one among them.

We have another shipment of last year's finest selected raisins. We are offering them at 5c a lb.

A great many people are using them for pies instead of apples.

To-day we expect to have in some more fine dates at 5c a lb. The last we had could scarcely be told from the new ones.

Overcoat Elegance

Need not be overcoat extravagance, for no matter at what price you buy a coat of us, it will be made up in the latest style. Every detail is entrusted to competent and careful workmen. The way a coat is put together has just as much to do with the elegance of its appearance as the fabric of which it is composed.

That's why our Overcoats at wholesale price have a distinctive air about them that ordinary coats do not possess.

WANTED A SHOW

And incidentally Desired to Dictate his Wife's Evidence for her—Remanded for Sentence.

At the police court this morning, in the case of Robert Owens, colored, who is charged by Mrs. Ferguson, with breaking into her house on Tuesday night, at midnight, was taken up.

In her evidence, Mrs. Ferguson said that the prisoner, after breaking in her house, had sat around until five o'clock, when he left.

P. C. Dezelis was examined, and said that he had arrested the prisoner, and had taken him to Mrs. Ferguson's who said he was the man.

Mrs. Owens, the prisoner's wife, next examined and gave evidence that her husband had not been out of the house within a month and had not been up before six o'clock any morning in that time. Several times while Mrs. Owens was giving her evidence the prisoner prompted her. Judge Houston reprimanded the prisoner for this and he became very warm and blurted out:—"Say, Judge, you ain't givin' me a fair show at all."

Julius Caesar Chase was the next witness. He said prisoner had moved from his house on Monday night.

In summing up the case, Judge Houston said that either Mrs. Ferguson was perjuring herself or Mrs. Owens was. He could see no reason why Mrs. Ferguson should want the prisoner sent to jail, and there was a reason for Mrs. Owens' perjuring herself as she did not want her husband to be sent to jail.

Prisoner was remanded until next Monday for sentence.

The funeral will take place from his late residence on Nelson street, Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, thence to the Wallaceburg cemetery.

GEO. L. TAYLOR

A Former Resident of Bothwell
Writes an Interesting Letter
From the far Yukon.

George L. Taylor, formerly magistrate and lawyer, of Bothwell, but now commissioner to the Yukon, writes the following interesting letter to The Planet. Mr. Taylor is a brother of Harry Taylor, Lorne avenue, this city.

White Horse, Nov. 8, 1901.
"Planet," Chatham, Ont.

Dear Planet,—I arrived in White Horse on the 9th of September and on the 11th I went to Dawson and was sworn in and had a very pleasant trip down the river, reaching the celebrated city of Dawson on the 13th. The distance by water is 455 miles. It takes the boats two days or a little over to make the run. Coming up from Dawson to White Horse it takes from three to five days. The river in this country is very crooked. If the line were run straight from point to point the distance would not be much over 300 miles.

Dawson is quite a place. The Government are putting up fine public buildings and the place has a look of prosperity about it that gives one a favorable impression. People here have every confidence in it and it looks as if it would be a permanent camp. I saw some vegetables growing there which were as fine as can be raised in Ontario. They have succeeded too, in raising oats. I was out at the mines where at Dawson. They are getting out lots of gold. The figures for this year being close to 24 millions.

I like the place very much. It seems strange after living in a flat country like the County of Kent to find one's self in a valley surrounded on all sides by high mountains, but that is what White Horse is. The mountains separate a little to the south of this place and come together again a little to the north of us, forming a valley with the river running through it, making a very pretty situation for a town and, if the copper mines near here are developed in the spring, we should have a good lively town. Gold is being got at the Big Salmon not far from here. Silver is also being found and coal in abundance. The Northwest Mounted Police preserve order in this country. They have at present about 50 men stationed there besides officers. Major Snyder is in command. They are also very much in evidence between here and Dawson, having posts every 40 or 50 miles with three or four men at each post. The Canadian Bank of Commerce have a branch here and another one at Dawson, doing a large business at both places. One of the other chartered banks intend coming up a branch here in the spring.

One advantage we have, we meet all the people going to or coming from Dawson. The White Pass and Yukon Railway carry their passengers from Skagway or Skagtown as they call it here) to White Horse, arriving here at 4 p. m. They have then to wait until a boat is ready to go down the river. Everything to be unloaded from the trains here and then be loaded on to the boats. The railway does a tremendous business and have over a quarter of a mile of freight sheds at this place. The fare from Skagway here, a distance of 111 miles, is $30 one way and freight rates are something great. The scenery along the railway is grand, but one should go over it himself to appreciate it. I came here prepared with fur coat, fur cap, felt shoes and other warm clothes, expecting by all accounts I had read of this country to see everything frozen up in September or the beginning of October, and now on the 8th of November I am wearing my light overcoat and felt hat. If you see any one who wants to go for a pleasure trip next summer advise them to take the C. P. R. to Vancouver, then one of the C. P. N. boats to Skagway just for the sail. Of course if they have the time let them come on to White Horse or through here Dawson, for a pleasure trip by water, nothing can beat the sail between Vancouver and Skagway, which takes three days. The only place that a person can be sick is coming through Queen Charlotte Sound, and that only takes four or five hours to get through. The rest of the way it is delightful.

The engineer in charge of Public Works here, Mr. J. C. Tache, and his staff left yesterday for Ottawa. Mr. Tache and his family will be greatly missed by the people here as he has done everything in his power to assist in building up this place. As a mark of the high esteem in which he is held here the citizens presented him with an address and a purse containing $150.00 in gold and Mrs. Tache with a brooch made of gold nuggets.

Theatrical

A BRACE OF PARTRIDGES.

At the Grand to-night, Mr. Reeves-Smith, the famous comedian, who will visit us to-night, with his very successful comedy, "A Brace of Partridges" is still a young man in years, though old in his profession. In London and New York he view with Chas. Wyndham and John Drew, though he is far and away their junior. Socially Mr. Reeves-Smith is one of the few actors sought after not only in England but America, he being connected with one of the best families in the United Kingdom, viz., Harcourt Whites, the Earls of Bantrey. Although quite young, Mr. Reeves-Smith is only seventeen-removed from being the father of the representative theatrical club of England, the strange old fashioned little Grand Room Club in Bedford street, Strand. It so happened in 1879 only two members were elected, the club being one of the most select of any in London. Mr. Reeves-Smith was one, and Mr. W. H. Kendall husband of Mrs. Madge Kendall, well known in America, the other.

The club was started by the older members and managers of the theatrical profession out of a dispute and split at the Garrick club. Mr. J. L. Toole, Sir Henry Irving, Sir Squire Bancroft, Mr. Wilson Barrett, Mr. John Hare, etc., started, and what with deaths, resignations and other causes these gentlemen above mentioned and ten others, are all who stand between Mr. Reeves-Smith (for so young a man) the unique position of being father of one of the best known clubs in the world.
