

storm and his conversion, with all the striking details. Many souls were blessed that night, and one in particular remains engraven upon my memory.

It is that of a young man, overwhelmed by a profound sense of sin who had vainly sought for peace with God, through leading a pious life. He remained after the preaching, and when he was asked if he was saved, he replied in a tone of deep distress :

"No, but I would like to be."

"Then you do not know what it is to be 'as white as snow' in the presence of God?"

"Oh! no: I am still in my sins, which are as crimson."

"But do you not believe in Jesus and His precious blood?"

"Yes, yes; I believe all that."

"Then you cannot be any longer in your sins, for the word of God says, in speaking of all those who believe in Jesus: 'The blood of Jesus Christ, His Son, cleanseth us from all sin.'"

With an expression of intense anxiety, he cried:

"Do you then say that all those who simply believe in Jesus are washed in His blood from all their sins, and are 'white as snow'?"

"Yes, most certainly. Does not the apostle Paul say, that by Jesus is preached unto you the
