Toronto, Monday, August 14.—Trade in wholesale circles is normal. In some quarters where business will be affected by the result of the fight on reciprocity there is a tendency to stand still and await the result. Apple dealers, for inthere is a tendency to stand still and await the result. Apple dealers, for in-stance, are very slow at making deals for their apples until they find out whether or not they will have an opportunity to dispose of this year's crop in the markets of the Eastern States. The action of the United States railways in reducing freight rates on fruit from Oregon to points in the Canadian West has made the possi-bility of free entry to the United States bility of free entry to the United States markets of particular interest to Eastern apple dealers, as the reduced rates will make it harder for them to compete with Oregon apples a; points west of Winniper. One promisent apple dealer stated to us recently that free entry to the New York markets would mean more to him than the loss of the entire Western market.
