Where everything was good, it is difficult to signal any one number for special commendation, but the jubilee chorus from Wagner, and the beautiful duet for soprano and bass "By Thee With Bliss," with the obligate chorus deserve a special mention, while "The Heavens are Telling" was given with a brilliancy and vever only possible where every one participating is absolutely sure of his or her part, and elicited from the audience an outburst of applause most gratifying to the performers. The Rev. Father Donnelly complimented the choir on the artistic success of the concert and the Vivat Pastor Bonus by the full chorus of 125 voices brought a delightful evening to a close.

Archbishop Bruchesi Warns Dioce sans Against Them.

In the course of his pastoral visitation His Grace Archbishop Bruchesi on Sunday last at Longueuil took occasion to speak very strongly against the practice of some Catholics joining secret societies. He warned his hearers against neutral societies, and especially against societies that are hostile to the Church mentioning the Free Masons, Knights, mentioning the Free Masons, Knights of Pythias, and Oddfellows. His of Pythias, and Oddfellows. His Grace denounced particularly the Emancipation Lodge, founded in Montreal in 1898, and affiliated with the Grand Orient of old France. Grace also strongly insisted strict Sunday observance, true Christian education for the children, and tian education for the children, the spread of temperance work giving up the habit of offering quor to visitors and reducing number of licenses.

The May Devotions.

Magnificent Function at St. Ann's Church on Sunday.

St. Ann's Church was the scene of a magnificent function last Sunday night in connection with the May devotions. It was the night assigned to the Children of Mary and a number of worshippers thronged the church. The sermon was preached by Rev. Father Daly, C.SS.R., of Ste. Anne de Beaupre. Needless to say it was in every way worthy of the splendid occasion. The sanctuary was tastefully decorated, and the altar with its blaze of varied electric lights, the rich colored dresses of the altar boys blending with the golden vestments of the priest, all formed a superb tableau of deep religious inspiration.

formed a superb tableau of deep religious inspiration.

After the sermon the picture of the most Blessed Virgin, beautifully decorated, was borne in solemn procession, preceded by the sanctuary boys and followed by the members of the society of the Children of Mary, their Litany chant blending with the softened tones of the organ under the artistic touch of Prof. J. I. McCaffrey. The celebration was fittingly terminated by the solemn benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament, given by Rev. Father Rioux. The musical portion was in solemn benediction of the block Dieses of Sacrament, given by Rev. Father Rioux. The musical portion was in the hands of the ladies of the choir and their 'singing, as usual, was of a high order. The pure tones of the different parts blending in perfect harmony, the ensemble and precision of execution, the attentive shading, the perfect interpretation, the graceful and brilliant flow that go to make the finished performance in choral singing, point to the experienced and skilful training under the direction of Miss M. Mahoney.

NO WARRANT FOR MARRIAGE.

We must, therefore, admit that, ac-We must, therefore, admit that, according to the religion of Jesus Christ, conjugal infidelity does not warrant either party to marry again or else we are forced to the conclusion that the vast number of Christians whose knowledge of Christianity was derived solely from the teachings of Saints Mark, Luke, and Paul. were imperfectly instructed in Paul, were imperfectly instructed in their faith.

Nor can we suppose that St. Mat-thew gave to the married Christians of Palestine a privilege which St. Paul withheld from the Corinthians; for then the early Christian Church might have witnessed the unedifying spectacle of aggrieved husbands seking in Judea for a divorce from their adulterous wives which they could not obtain in Corinth; just as discontented spouses in our time. in a neighboring State for a legal separation which is denied them in their own. The Catholic Church, following the light of the Gospel, forbids a divorced man to enter into second espousals during the life of his former partner. This is the inflexible law she first proclaimed in the face of pagest empergers and prople, and of pagan emperors and people, and which she has ever upheld, in spite of the passions and voluptuousness of her own rebellious children.
