STILL NO WORD

No word has been received to-day by Ald. J. S. Dowling, chairman of the Soldiers' Aid Commission, concerning Pte. Isaac Chris, McKinnon, of this city, who was reported to have reached Toronto, on his way home from the front, on Friday last.

ELM AVENUE

Rev. T. D. Linscott conducted the service at Elm Avenue Methodist Church last evening, taking his text from the second epistle of Paul to the Corinthians, III., 18, and dwelling upon the theme "From Glory to God."

NO LOCAL NAMES

No names of Brant County men appear in the latest casualty list, although Pte. P. Dean of Cayuga, and Pte. G. J. Flanagan of Ancaster were both reported wounded. Lt. R. Wickham Stevenson of Ancaster was reported dead of wounds.

NO LOCAL MEN

Two officers, three nursing sisters, and 52 M.C.O.'s and men from Canada, returned home on the steamer Gramphian early Sunday. The party was in charge of Captain E. E. Sinemars, Quebec, who is back on sick leave and will return to duty in a month's time. No local men were aboard.

PLAYED AT GALT

Five risks of howlers from the Pastime Club of this city visited Galt for a friendly game with the Galt club, losing out by narrow margin of 4 points. The visitors were entertained by the home team to supper at the Iniquitous Hotel, following the game, and received fire treatment generally.

Are you going to let a few minutes of your time, the price of a pair of glasses, the hope that your children may be able to struggle along without glasses stand between them and good eyesight and good school work?

GEO. COCKSHUTT RETURNS HOME

Lieutenant of 19th Battalion to Go on Service in Canada.

Quietly and unnoticed by the majority of the city, Lt. George Cockshutt of the 19th Battalion, returned to Brantford on Friday of last week, after an absence of 23 months, of which time some eight months were spent at the front. Lt. Cockshutt left Brantford in October of 1914, with the active service quota of the Dufferin Rifles which became attached to the 19th Battalion of the second contingent. He is a son of W. F. Cockshutt, honorary colonel of the 125th Battalion. He has two brothers also on active service, Maj. Ashton Cockshutt having returned once from the front, and being now in the 125th, while Lt. Eric Cockshutt is attached to the Divisional Ammunition Column at Peta-sawa artillery camp. Two cousins, Lt. Harvey Cockshutt and Capt. Gordon Cockshutt are also on active service, as is an uncle, Lt.-Col. Harry Cockshutt, of the 215th.

After serving some eight months in the trenches, Lt. Cockshutt, through ear trouble, was discharged from further service in France, and invalided home to Canada for service here. He arrived some little time ago, but spent a few weeks in Muskoka before returning to his home here. He expects to be at Camp Borden for service very shortly.

Concerning matters at the front, Lt. Cockshutt prefers to remain reticent. "I have nothing to say," is his reply to all queries.

Music and Drama

"Her Own Way," the five part drama, playing at the Colonial on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday was written by Clyde Fitch and produced by Metro in their usual elaborate manner.

Miss Florence Reed, the versatile dramatic star, whose work in "The Yellow Ticket" and "A Celebrated Case," caused quite a stir along Broadway, and received much comment and praise from the press, is featured in this production.

"Her Own Way" throughout its five thousand feet, is bound to hold the interest of the most critical lover of pictures, by reason of its many strong situations and delightful interpretation.

POLICE COURT
Herbert Bingley, believed to be of London, appeared in the police court this morning to answer a charge of conversion preferred against him by the Darwen Music Company of this city. Bingley, who is a salesman, is alleged to have sold to the company an electric battery for $10, and after borrowing it again for demonstration purposes, failed to return it. He had, however, made restitution when he appeared before the bench this morning, and was ordered to pay $7.85 costs for the case, or spend one month in jail. He believed that he will choose the latter alternative. It is stated by the police locally that Bingley is wanted by the authorities in London for a similar trick done there last spring. Wesley Turner, for carrying concealed weapons, this morning paid $10 and $2.85 costs. A half dozen drunks were also in evidence, each being mulcted to the extent of $3.

SGT.-MAJ. JOHNSON HAS BEEN WOUNDED

Veteran of 4th Battalion Was in Charge of Bombers and Mortar Gun.

The last Brantford man in the ranks of the 4th Battalion who, to the present, had not been injured in some way, Sergeant-Major F. L. Johnson is now reported as wounded and admitted to a convalescent hospital, at Boulogne, France. He is a son of Mr. W. H. Johnson, proprietor of the Johnson Press, of this city, and enlisted here in August, 1914, being at that time a mechanical engineer and single, residing at 17 Waterloo Street. Sergeant-Major Johnson earned deservedly good reputation upon the field, and became Brigade bomb thrower, and later instructor in the use of a mortar gun. His application for a commission is at present under consideration.
