By Courier Leased Wire.

With the French Army on the Marne, Thursday, June 6, 7.30 p.m.—(By Associated Press).-Up to this hour the American and French Troops/advancing between Veuilly-la-Poterie and Torcy have reached the outer edges of the towns of Bussaires and Torcy.

On the West, the Allied Line has been carried to Granges Farm, South of Gandelu, West of Veuilly. Belleau W ood, East of Torcy, has been cleared of the enemy. Further details are not a vailable at this hour.

The Americans comprise the deta chments on the left of the advancing line. After capturing a small wood, sh aped like the letter S, the Americans reached the cemetery at Veuilly and continued to press forward slowly under a heavy fire from German machine g uns.

ATTACK A T DAWN

During the attack this morning, at dawn the German artillery fire against the Allies was feeble, but the enemy f ront line was well studded with machine guns. In the action this morning the Americans and French advanced one kilometre into the German line and captured 270 prisoners, including ten

Forty-five minutes after the figh ting started, one French Regiment had attained the border of Mars Wood, an d the edge of a triangular wood, 500 yards southeast of Bussaires, notwith standing sharp resistance. This Regiment alone took more than 100 prison ers.

SEVERE AT TACK MADE

With the American Forces on the Marne, Thursday, June 6.—Bulletin.— (By the Associated Press).—The second attack made today by American marines on German positions northwest of Chateau Thierry, gave early promise of being as successful as this morning's assault. The marines reached all their objectives set for the first hour within that time limit, and pushed beyond them. The early reports indic ated the Germans on the run for the time being, and surrendering right an d left.

ENEMY IS BEING HELD

By Courier Leased Wire Paris, June 7 .- In announce ing that the Germans are being held and that French counterattacks are meeting with success an official note mentions especially the action of the American troops along the Marne and northwest of Chateau Thierry. The note says that the latest fighting confirms the general impression of the past, few days that the confirmation of the past in the that the enemy is being held everywhere and that his reactions, which have become pure-ly local, yield no results. The French counter-attacks have enabled the French to improve

MACKENSEN'S PINCERS.

This map illustrates more graphically than the usual battle line maps, what the Germans are trying to do in their present offensive. The white line running through the black dot on the map of France is the battle front. From this Hindenburg is trying to throw two wedges into the French and British lines; one aiming at the channel along the Somme, the other at Paris, along the Marne. This 'a Mackensen's famous "pincers strategy" comparing these two wedges to a great pair of pincers he hopes to shut their jaws down; catching the French and British armies between them and destroying them. To this purpose the capture of Paris and and destroying them. To this purpose the capture of Paris the channel ports is only secondary importance.

OPPOSE UNION Amsterdam, June 7.—A great majority of the Lettish and Esthonian populations do not desire a uniox with Germany, says the German author, Hans Vorst, writing in The Berliner Tageblatt. Antagonism to the Baltic Germans in ingrained deeply in the Esthonian and Leutish peoples, he says, and this antagonism is deepened greatly by the social gulf.

The voluntary union of the Baltic provinces with Germany cannot be obtained on a democratic basis, the writer declares further, adding that if the German Baltic upper classes and their new Lettish and Esthonian satellites are permitted to decide this question then the annexation of the Baltic provinces to Germany can be maintained only so long as the countries are refused a democratic constitution."

Permanent German occupation, Herr Vorst concludes, can only keep in force such annexations.

London, June 7.—The Russian Soviet Government is meeting with difficulties in its efforts to conclude peace with the Ukrainian Government and prevent further encrochment upon Russian territory by German and Ukrainian troops. The peace conference at Klev is being delayed and in the meantime, German and Ukrainian troops have occupied new districts of Russia. The German command has declared it is inopportune to conclude peace before the occupation of all important Ukrainian districts is effected, according to an Exchange Telegraph despatch from Moscow.
