The Spelling Match and other

Friday evening, despite the inclemspelled well, Miss Ruth Woodworth

Obituary

ELEANOR MOORE

Much sympathy is expressed in the town of Kentville for the family of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Moore, in the loss of their daughter Eleanor, whose death took place on Monday evening, May 26th. Miss Nellie Moore was a graduate trained nurse and was enthusiastic in her chosen profession. Some few years ago she contracted typhoid fever, which, although she recovered, left its impress on her constitution.

Two years ago she came home hoping by resting awhile to resume her duties. She, however, gradually declined, until, as stated, May 26th, when God claimed His own.

Miss Moore had a sweet disposition and was universally beloved, as borne witness to by the large number who assembled in St. James Church, on Wednesday, and also by the large number of floral wreaths sent by loving friends and societies.

The funeral was conducted by the Rector of the parish, Rev. T. C.
Mellor, who spoke feelingly of the issues of life and death, and gave a degree of comfort to those left to mourn their loss.

Mr. Morash presided at the organ and was ably assisted by the choir and also the Kentville Quartette.
