

FORMING THAT COAL Cents
MERS
on July 1st, 1906,
$9.50
$10.50
$9.00
$8.00

BROS. chewan

ONS

are and European Factories

new ship-
toilet ware, and fancy colored and we believe is of any in invite you your leisure.

BROS.

ERY

CARTH STREET

IRON WORKS

OPES.

99, REGINA SASK.

taken in exchange for

one 16 H.P. steam

DEAP AND ON EASY

ICES.

S & CO.

Bull Durham
Duke's Mixture

of Canada, Ltd

TRY ORDERS

F.O.B. REGINA at half per cent.

A

chewan.

of the West

the sale of WESTERN

to look to the Eastern

all classes of bonds and the issue may be.

SON & CO.

REGINA, SASK.

Headaches Mean Your Blood Is Poisoned

If your bowels, kidneys or skin are not ridding the system of waste-matter, the blood is laden with impurities, which inflame the nerves. It is these irritated nerves that make the head ache. Powders and pills won't cure, they merely drug the nerves into unconsciousness and relieve for a short time.

"Fruit-a-Lives" cure Headaches, Neuralgia and Nerve Pains because they purify the blood. They act directly on the three great eliminating organs—Bowels, Kidneys and Skin—and restore them to healthy action, thus ridding the system of all poisons.

"Fruit-a-lives" use fruit juices—chemically changed, by the process of combining them, into a far more effective medicinal compound than the natural juices. See a box—6 for $2.50. At all dealers—or from Fruit-a-lives Limited, Ottawa.

GUATEMALA AND SALVADOR MAY TAKE A HAND

WAR BETWEEN HONDURAS AND NICARAGUA MAY DRAW THEM IN.

Reported by United States Minister That Guatemala Will Likely Join Nicaragua and That Salvador Will Side With Honduras.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—A cablegram received by the State Department from the American Minister at Guatemala City says that it is altogether likely that the hostilities in Central America will extend. It is believed that Salvador will join the forces of Honduras, while Guatemala will join sides with Nicaragua in the present struggle. The United States will send more battalions to Central American waters at once.

By Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—A cablegram received by the State Department from the American Minister at Guatemala City says that it is altogether likely that the hostilities in Central America will extend. It is believed that Salvador will join the forces of Honduras, while Guatemala will join sides with Nicaragua in the present struggle. The United States will send more battalions to Central American waters at once.

By Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—A cablegram received by the State Department from the American Minister at Guatemala City says that it is altogether likely that the hostilities in Central America will extend. It is believed that Salvador will join the forces of Honduras, while Guatemala will join sides with Nicaragua in the present struggle. The United States will send more battalions to Central American waters at once.

By Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—A cablegram received by the State Department from the American Minister at Guatemala City says that it is altogether likely that the hostilities in Central America will extend. It is believed that Salvador will join the forces of Honduras, while Guatemala will join sides with Nicaragua in the present struggle. The United States will send more battalions to Central American waters at once.

By Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—A cablegram received by the State Department from the American Minister at Guatemala City says that it is altogether likely that the hostilities in Central America will extend. It is believed that Salvador will join the forces of Honduras, while Guatemala will join sides with Nicaragua in the present struggle. The United States will send more battalions to Central American waters at once.

By Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—A cablegram received by the State Department from the American Minister at Guatemala City says that it is altogether likely that the hostilities in Central America will extend. It is believed that Salvador will join the forces of Honduras, while Guatemala will join sides with Nicaragua in the present struggle. The United States will send more battalions to Central American waters at once.

By Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—A cablegram received by the State Department from the American Minister at Guatemala City says that it is altogether likely that the hostilities in Central America will extend. It is believed that Salvador will join the forces of Honduras, while Guatemala will join sides with Nicaragua in the present struggle. The United States will send more battalions to Central American waters at once.

By Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—A cablegram received by the State Department from the American Minister at Guatemala City says that it is altogether likely that the hostilities in Central America will extend. It is believed that Salvador will join the forces of Honduras, while Guatemala will join sides with Nicaragua in the present struggle. The United States will send more battalions to Central American waters at once.

By Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—A cablegram received by the State Department from the American Minister at Guatemala City says that it is altogether likely that the hostilities in Central America will extend. It is believed that Salvador will join the forces of Honduras, while Guatemala will join sides with Nicaragua in the present struggle. The United States will send more battalions to Central American waters at once.

By Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—A cablegram received by the State Department from the American Minister at Guatemala City says that it is altogether likely that the hostilities in Central America will extend. It is believed that Salvador will join the forces of Honduras, while Guatemala will join sides with Nicaragua in the present struggle. The United States will send more battalions to Central American waters at once.

By Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—A cablegram received by the State Department from the American Minister at Guatemala City says that it is altogether likely that the hostilities in Central America will extend. It is believed that Salvador will join the forces of Honduras, while Guatemala will join sides with Nicaragua in the present struggle. The United States will send more battalions to Central American waters at once.

By Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—A cablegram received by the State Department from the American Minister at Guatemala City says that it is altogether likely that the hostilities in Central America will extend. It is believed that Salvador will join the forces of Honduras, while Guatemala will join sides with Nicaragua in the present struggle. The United States will send more battalions to Central American waters at once.

By Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—A cablegram received by the State Department from the American Minister at Guatemala City says that it is altogether likely that the hostilities in Central America will extend. It is believed that Salvador will join the forces of Honduras, while Guatemala will join sides with Nicaragua in the present struggle. The United States will send more battalions to Central American waters at once.

By Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—A cablegram received by the State Department from the American Minister at Guatemala City says that it is altogether likely that the hostilities in Central America will extend. It is believed that Salvador will join the forces of Honduras, while Guatemala will join sides with Nicaragua in the present struggle. The United States will send more battalions to Central American waters at once.

By Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—A cablegram received by the State Department from the American Minister at Guatemala City says that it is altogether likely that the hostilities in Central America will extend. It is believed that Salvador will join the forces of Honduras, while Guatemala will join sides with Nicaragua in the present struggle. The United States will send more battalions to Central American waters at once.

By Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—A cablegram received by the State Department from the American Minister at Guatemala City says that it is altogether likely that the hostilities in Central America will extend. It is believed that Salvador will join the forces of Honduras, while Guatemala will join sides with Nicaragua in the present struggle. The United States will send more battalions to Central American waters at once.

By Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—A cablegram received by the State Department from the American Minister at Guatemala City says that it is altogether likely that the hostilities in Central America will extend. It is believed that Salvador will join the forces of Honduras, while Guatemala will join sides with Nicaragua in the present struggle. The United States will send more battalions to Central American waters at once.

By Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—A cablegram received by the State Department from the American Minister at Guatemala City says that it is altogether likely that the hostilities in Central America will extend. It is believed that Salvador will join the forces of Honduras, while Guatemala will join sides with Nicaragua in the present struggle. The United States will send more battalions to Central American waters at once.

By Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—A cablegram received by the State Department from the American Minister at Guatemala City says that it is altogether likely that the hostilities in Central America will extend. It is believed that Salvador will join the forces of Honduras, while Guatemala will join sides with Nicaragua in the present struggle. The United States will send more battalions to Central American waters at once.

By Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—A cablegram received by the State Department from the American Minister at Guatemala City says that it is altogether likely that the hostilities in Central America will extend. It is believed that Salvador will join the forces of Honduras, while Guatemala will join sides with Nicaragua in the present struggle. The United States will send more battalions to Central American waters at once.

By Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—A cablegram received by the State Department from the American Minister at Guatemala City says that it is altogether likely that the hostilities in Central America will extend. It is believed that Salvador will join the forces of Honduras, while Guatemala will join sides with Nicaragua in the present struggle. The United States will send more battalions to Central American waters at once.

THREE INDIANS PERISH BY FIRE WHILE DRUNK

OVERTURNED LAMP SETS MISERABLE TEPEE IN FLAMES IN A MOMENT.

Husband of One of Burned Squaws Makes Heroic Endeavor to Save Her Life, But Is Beaten Back by the Devouring Element.

Special to The Leader. WINNIPEG, Feb. 24.—As the result of a drunken debauch, Batece Prince, Rosie Smith and Goedie Klesian were burned to death in an Indian tepee about a mile west of the Indian Industrial School at Middlechurch this morning.

The three victims were Indians from the Brokenhead reserve and were cremated as they lay stepped from the effects of liquor in a miserable tepee constructed of bark, saplings and mud.

All night there was drinking in the tepee and the wild native blood of the inhabitants was aroused. Unable to stand the effects of the liquor, they were overcome and stupefied and fell on the floor. While the three victims were incapacitated the lamp was overturned and exploded. The light, dry bark of which the tepee was built, burned with startling rapidity, and in the flames which mounted in the frail domicile three lives went out, only two of the occupants escaping.

In a vain attempt to save the life of his wife Smith was badly burned in the face. The sight of the burning pile of bark and timber inspired him to brave fiends, but the oil from the lamp had given the blaze a great headway, and time and time again he was beaten back from the burning bodies of his wife and companions by the terrible heat.

Coroner Inglis, who accompanied by Chief Elliott and Dr. Steep, was called to the spot by the provincial constable, repaired early this morning to the scene, and when they arrived the bodies were still in the ashes of the fire, charred almost beyond recognition.

As it is a criminal offense to supply an Indian with liquor, an effort will be made to locate those who supplied the victims with the whisky which was the cause of the triple fatality, and it is likely that prosecutions will follow the inquest, which will be held tomorrow evening.

BEEN TO SKIDDOW, PA. It Used to be Cherry Tree But New Name Fits.

OIL CITY, Pa., Feb. 23.—According to instructions from the Postoffice Department the name of the Cherry Tree postoffice, this county, has been changed to "Skiddow." The new name is not without significance, as the place at one time was a popular oil center, but is now a hamlet with less than a dozen houses.

Congress Votes $105,000,000.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 23.—The sundry with all its shocking revelations, shall stop.

When the trial resumed Monday Jerome will again make an effort to secure a mental condition of the prisoner. They have bitterly opposed such a step ever since the trial began, and would continue to do so to the bitter end.

It is reported that all the members of the Thaw family are anxious that the trial, with all its shocking revelations, shall stop.

When the trial resumed Monday Jerome will again make an effort to secure a mental condition of the prisoner. They have bitterly opposed such a step ever since the trial began, and would continue to do so to the bitter end.

It is reported that all the members of the Thaw family are anxious that the trial, with all its shocking revelations, shall stop.

When the trial resumed Monday Jerome will again make an effort to secure a mental condition of the prisoner. They have bitterly opposed such a step ever since the trial began, and would continue to do so to the bitter end.

It is reported that all the members of the Thaw family are anxious that the trial, with all its shocking revelations, shall stop.

When the trial resumed Monday Jerome will again make an effort to secure a mental condition of the prisoner. They have bitterly opposed such a step ever since the trial began, and would continue to do so to the bitter end.

It is reported that all the members of the Thaw family are anxious that the trial, with all its shocking revelations, shall stop.

When the trial resumed Monday Jerome will again make an effort to secure a mental condition of the prisoner. They have bitterly opposed such a step ever since the trial began, and would continue to do so to the bitter end.

It is reported that all the members of the Thaw family are anxious that the trial, with all its shocking revelations, shall stop.

When the trial resumed Monday Jerome will again make an effort to secure a mental condition of the prisoner. They have bitterly opposed such a step ever since the trial began, and would continue to do so to the bitter end.

It is reported that all the members of the Thaw family are anxious that the trial, with all its shocking revelations, shall stop.

When the trial resumed Monday Jerome will again make an effort to secure a mental condition of the prisoner. They have bitterly opposed such a step ever since the trial began, and would continue to do so to the bitter end.

It is reported that all the members of the Thaw family are anxious that the trial, with all its shocking revelations, shall stop.

When the trial resumed Monday Jerome will again make an effort to secure a mental condition of the prisoner. They have bitterly opposed such a step ever since the trial began, and would continue to do so to the bitter end.

It is reported that all the members of the Thaw family are anxious that the trial, with all its shocking revelations, shall stop.

When the trial resumed Monday Jerome will again make an effort to secure a mental condition of the prisoner. They have bitterly opposed such a step ever since the trial began, and would continue to do so to the bitter end.

LIEUT. GOVERNOR OF N.B. DIES ON WAY TO CHURCH

TRAGIC DEATH OF HON. JABEZ BUNTING SNOWBALL YESTERDAY.

Falls to the Ground on His Way to the Cathedral, Dying Within Five Minutes of the Seizure—Heart Disease the Cause of Death.

Special to The Leader. FREDERICTON, N. B., Feb. 24.—Hon. Jabez Bunting Snowball, Lieutenant-Governor of New Brunswick, dropped dead this evening in Queen street on his way to service in the Cathedral.

He left the Queen's hotel and walked only a short distance when he complained to his servant that he did not feel well and then turned to return to the hotel. He had gone but a few yards when he sank to the ground unconscious and never spoke again, dying in less than five minutes.

Help soon came and he was carried to his room in the hotel, where Doctors Atherton and McGrath were immediately in attendance, but there was no sign of life. The doctors said that heart disease caused death.

His Honor, the Hon. Jabez B. Snowball was born at Lunenburg, N. S., Sept. 24, 1827, the son of Rev. John Snowball, a native of Yorkshire, England. He was largely identified with railway enterprises in N. B. and prominently connected with all important enterprises in Northumberland Co., where he resided, being extensively engaged in the lumber trade.

He was a member of the House of Commons, and the Hon. Peter Mitchell in 1874 and again in 1875, which he defeated Mr. Mitchell in the general election of that year. He was a member of the Executive Council, N. B., until the general election of 1882, when he did not offer for re-election.

He was called to the bar in 1881, and appointed Lieutenant Governor Jan. 28, 1902.

With LOCAL APPLICATIONS, as they can not reach the seat of the disease. Catarrh of the bladder is a common ailment, and to cure it you must take internal remedies.

It is reported that all the members of the Thaw family are anxious that the trial, with all its shocking revelations, shall stop.

When the trial resumed Monday Jerome will again make an effort to secure a mental condition of the prisoner. They have bitterly opposed such a step ever since the trial began, and would continue to do so to the bitter end.

It is reported that all the members of the Thaw family are anxious that the trial, with all its shocking revelations, shall stop.

When the trial resumed Monday Jerome will again make an effort to secure a mental condition of the prisoner. They have bitterly opposed such a step ever since the trial began, and would continue to do so to the bitter end.

It is reported that all the members of the Thaw family are anxious that the trial, with all its shocking revelations, shall stop.

When the trial resumed Monday Jerome will again make an effort to secure a mental condition of the prisoner. They have bitterly opposed such a step ever since the trial began, and would continue to do so to the bitter end.

It is reported that all the members of the Thaw family are anxious that the trial, with all its shocking revelations, shall stop.

When the trial resumed Monday Jerome will again make an effort to secure a mental condition of the prisoner. They have bitterly opposed such a step ever since the trial began, and would continue to do so to the bitter end.

It is reported that all the members of the Thaw family are anxious that the trial, with all its shocking revelations, shall stop.

When the trial resumed Monday Jerome will again make an effort to secure a mental condition of the prisoner. They have bitterly opposed such a step ever since the trial began, and would continue to do so to the bitter end.

It is reported that all the members of the Thaw family are anxious that the trial, with all its shocking revelations, shall stop.

When the trial resumed Monday Jerome will again make an effort to secure a mental condition of the prisoner. They have bitterly opposed such a step ever since the trial began, and would continue to do so to the bitter end.

It is reported that all the members of the Thaw family are anxious that the trial, with all its shocking revelations, shall stop.

When the trial resumed Monday Jerome will again make an effort to secure a mental condition of the prisoner. They have bitterly opposed such a step ever since the trial began, and would continue to do so to the bitter end.

It is reported that all the members of the Thaw family are anxious that the trial, with all its shocking revelations, shall stop.

When the trial resumed Monday Jerome will again make an effort to secure a mental condition of the prisoner. They have bitterly opposed such a step ever since the trial began, and would continue to do so to the bitter end.

It is reported that all the members of the Thaw family are anxious that the trial, with all its shocking revelations, shall stop.

When the trial resumed Monday Jerome will again make an effort to secure a mental condition of the prisoner. They have bitterly opposed such a step ever since the trial began, and would continue to do so to the bitter end.

It is reported that all the members of the Thaw family are anxious that the trial, with all its shocking revelations, shall stop.

When the trial resumed Monday Jerome will again make an effort to secure a mental condition of the prisoner. They have bitterly opposed such a step ever since the trial began, and would continue to do so to the bitter end.

THE LEFT PARTY CONTROLS DOUMA

HAS CARRIED MOST SEATS THUS FAR IN THE RUSSIAN PARLIAMENTARY ELECTIONS.

By Associated Press. ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 23.—Election statistics for the past week show the election of 418 members of Parliament. Members of the Left Party predominate, having 156 members. The rest of the members are made up of Monarchists, Moderates, Progressives, Constitutionalists, Democrats and Nationalists. Fully half of the members of the new house are peasants.

Among the members of the Left party elected are nineteen members of the Group of Toi, thirty Social Democrats and five Social Revolutionists. The fourteen Progressives probably will act with the Constitutional Democrats.

The results confirm the anticipations of a strong drift to the Left Party and show that the Constitutional Democrats will be forced to seek allies among the Moderates in order to maintain any independence of action. They also indicate an overwhelming majority in opposition to the Government's reforms and also a majority against the extremist demand for the immediate destruction of Parliament.

By Associated Press. ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 23.—Election statistics for the past week show the election of 418 members of Parliament. Members of the Left Party predominate, having 156 members. The rest of the members are made up of Monarchists, Moderates, Progressives, Constitutionalists, Democrats and Nationalists. Fully half of the members of the new house are peasants.

Among the members of the Left party elected are nineteen members of the Group of Toi, thirty Social Democrats and five Social Revolutionists. The fourteen Progressives probably will act with the Constitutional Democrats.

The results confirm the anticipations of a strong drift to the Left Party and show that the Constitutional Democrats will be forced to seek allies among the Moderates in order to maintain any independence of action. They also indicate an overwhelming majority in opposition to the Government's reforms and also a majority against the extremist demand for the immediate destruction of Parliament.

By Associated Press. ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 23.—Election statistics for the past week show the election of 418 members of Parliament. Members of the Left Party predominate, having 156 members. The rest of the members are made up of Monarchists, Moderates, Progressives, Constitutionalists, Democrats and Nationalists. Fully half of the members of the new house are peasants.

Among the members of the Left party elected are nineteen members of the Group of Toi, thirty Social Democrats and five Social Revolutionists. The fourteen Progressives probably will act with the Constitutional Democrats.

The results confirm the anticipations of a strong drift to the Left Party and show that the Constitutional Democrats will be forced to seek allies among the Moderates in order to maintain any independence of action. They also indicate an overwhelming majority in opposition to the Government's reforms and also a majority against the extremist demand for the immediate destruction of Parliament.

By Associated Press. ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 23.—Election statistics for the past week show the election of 418 members of Parliament. Members of the Left Party predominate, having 156 members. The rest of the members are made up of Monarchists, Moderates, Progressives, Constitutionalists, Democrats and Nationalists. Fully half of the members of the new house are peasants.

Among the members of the Left party elected are nineteen members of the Group of Toi, thirty Social Democrats and five Social Revolutionists. The fourteen Progressives probably will act with the Constitutional Democrats.

The results confirm the anticipations of a strong drift to the Left Party and show that the Constitutional Democrats will be forced to seek allies among the Moderates in order to maintain any independence of action. They also indicate an overwhelming majority in opposition to the Government's reforms and also a majority against the extremist demand for the immediate destruction of Parliament.

By Associated Press. ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 23.—Election statistics for the past week show the election of 418 members of Parliament. Members of the Left Party predominate, having 156 members. The rest of the members are made up of Monarchists, Moderates, Progressives, Constitutionalists, Democrats and Nationalists. Fully half of the members of the new house are peasants.

Among the members of the Left party elected are nineteen members of the Group of Toi, thirty Social Democrats and five Social Revolutionists. The fourteen Progressives probably will act with the Constitutional Democrats.

The results confirm the anticipations of a strong drift to the Left Party and show that the Constitutional Democrats will be forced to seek allies among the Moderates in order to maintain any independence of action. They also indicate an overwhelming majority in opposition to the Government's reforms and also a majority against the extremist demand for the immediate destruction of Parliament.

By Associated Press. ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 23.—Election statistics for the past week show the election of 418 members of Parliament. Members of the Left Party predominate, having 156 members. The rest of the members are made up of Monarchists, Moderates, Progressives, Constitutionalists, Democrats and Nationalists. Fully half of the members of the new house are peasants.

Among the members of the Left party elected are nineteen members of the Group of Toi, thirty Social Democrats and five Social Revolutionists. The fourteen Progressives probably will act with the Constitutional Democrats.

The results confirm the anticipations of a strong drift to the Left Party and show that the Constitutional Democrats will be forced to seek allies among the Moderates in order to maintain any independence of action. They also indicate an overwhelming majority in opposition to the Government's reforms and also a majority against the extremist demand for the immediate destruction of Parliament.

By Associated Press. ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 23.—Election statistics for the past week show the election of 418 members of Parliament. Members of the Left Party predominate, having 156 members. The rest of the members are made up of Monarchists, Moderates, Progressives, Constitutionalists, Democrats and Nationalists. Fully half of the members of the new house are peasants.

Among the members of the Left party elected are nineteen members of the Group of Toi, thirty Social Democrats and five Social Revolutionists. The fourteen Progressives probably will act with the Constitutional Democrats.

The results confirm the anticipations of a strong drift to the Left Party and show that the Constitutional Democrats will be forced to seek allies among the Moderates in order to maintain any independence of action. They also indicate an overwhelming majority in opposition to the Government's reforms and also a majority against the extremist demand for the immediate destruction of Parliament.

By Associated Press. ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 23.—Election statistics for the past week show the election of 418 members of Parliament. Members of the Left Party predominate, having 156 members. The rest of the members are made up of Monarchists, Moderates, Progressives, Constitutionalists, Democrats and Nationalists. Fully half of the members of the new house are peasants.

Among the members of the Left party elected are nineteen members of the Group of Toi, thirty Social Democrats and five Social Revolutionists. The fourteen Progressives probably will act with the Constitutional Democrats.

The results confirm the anticipations of a strong drift to the Left Party and show that the Constitutional Democrats will be forced to seek allies among the Moderates in order to maintain any independence of action. They also indicate an overwhelming majority in opposition to the Government's reforms and also a majority against the extremist demand for the immediate destruction of Parliament.

By Associated Press. ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 23.—Election statistics for the past week show the election of 418 members of Parliament. Members of the Left Party predominate, having 156 members. The rest of the members are made up of Monarchists, Moderates, Progressives, Constitutionalists, Democrats and Nationalists. Fully half of the members of the new house are peasants.

Among the members of the Left party elected are nineteen members of the Group of Toi, thirty Social Democrats and five Social Revolutionists. The fourteen Progressives probably will act with the Constitutional Democrats.

The results confirm the anticipations of a strong drift to the Left Party and show that the Constitutional Democrats will be forced to seek allies among the Moderates in order to maintain any independence of action. They also indicate an overwhelming majority in opposition to the Government's reforms and also a majority against the extremist demand for the immediate destruction of Parliament.

By Associated Press. ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 23.—Election statistics for the past week show the election of 418 members of Parliament. Members of the Left Party predominate, having 156 members. The rest of the members are made up of Monarchists, Moderates, Progressives, Constitutionalists, Democrats and Nationalists. Fully half of the members of the new house are peasants.

JAP SQUADRON AT HONOLULU

MIKADO'S VISITING SAILORS GET A BIG RECEPTION AT MAWAII.

By Associated Press. HONOLULU, Feb. 23.—The Japanese training squadron, consisting of the cruisers Matsushima, Hashidate and Itakushima, have arrived here. Admiral Tomika, from the flagship Matsushima, communicated his approach by means of wireless telegraphy. Rear Admiral Very replied, welcoming him.

Hundreds of sampans went outside the harbor to greet the squadron. As the Japanese warships entered the harbor a national salute was fired. The Admirals then exchanged salutes with the Japanese vessels docked at the naval wharf. At 1 o'clock official visits were exchanged. All the shipping in the harbor is decorated and floating everywhere. Five thousand Japanese in holiday attire were on the harbor front awaiting the arrival of the squadron. While the welcome was not demonstrative, it was none the less enthusiastic and hearty.

By Associated Press. HONOLULU, Feb. 23.—The Japanese training squadron, consisting of the cruisers Matsushima, Hashidate and Itakushima, have arrived here. Admiral Tomika, from the flagship Matsushima, communicated his approach by means of wireless telegraphy. Rear Admiral Very replied, welcoming him.

Hundreds of sampans went outside the harbor to greet the squadron. As the Japanese warships entered the harbor a national salute was fired. The Admirals then exchanged salutes with the Japanese vessels docked at the naval wharf. At 1 o'clock official visits were exchanged. All the shipping in the harbor is decorated and floating everywhere. Five thousand Japanese in holiday attire were on the harbor front awaiting the arrival of the squadron. While the welcome was not demonstrative, it was none the less enthusiastic and hearty.

By Associated Press. HONOLULU, Feb. 23.—The Japanese training squadron, consisting of the cruisers Matsushima, Hashidate and Itakushima, have arrived here. Admiral Tomika, from the flagship Matsushima, communicated his approach by means of wireless telegraphy. Rear Admiral Very replied, welcoming him.

Hundreds of sampans went outside the harbor to greet the squadron. As the Japanese warships entered the harbor a national salute was fired. The Admirals then exchanged salutes with the Japanese vessels docked at the naval wharf. At 1 o'clock official visits were exchanged. All the shipping in the harbor is decorated and floating everywhere. Five thousand Japanese in holiday attire were on the harbor front awaiting the arrival of the squadron. While the welcome was not demonstrative, it was none the less enthusiastic and hearty.

By Associated Press. HONOLULU, Feb. 23.—The Japanese training squadron, consisting of the cruis