A man in swimming at Bayfield, Ontario, became exhausted and started to sink. His calls for help were heard by Scout Stanley Nichols, a boy very much smaller than the man in difficulty. He, however, dived into the water and went to the rescue at once, reaching the man just as he was going down the third time. The man was frantic and did his best to clutch his would-be rescuer, but Nichols was quick enough to work around behind him and from there secure a safe hold. He then swam towards the end of a pier where, with ssistance, he succeeded in landing the now unconscious man. With the aid of another boy artificial respiration was satisfactorily applied.

It used to be thought that the color came from the swamps of the Upper Nile, lying isolated and stagnant under the burning tropical sun, and polluting the waters with decaying vegetable matter. With the spring rise this fetid water was supposed to be swept into the streams to make its appearance in Egypt.

This theory was abandoned some time ago. The green water is caused by the presence of innumerable numbers of miscroscopic algæ, offensive to the taste and smell. They have their origin way up in the tributaries and are carried to the Nile, where under the hot sun and in the clear water they increase with amazing rapidity, forming columns from two hundred and fifty miles to five hundred miles

The weeds go on growing and dying and decaying until the turbid flood waters put them to an end, for they cannot exist save in clear water.

The Need of Population.

For the five years 1909 to 1914 Cana da received about 1,861,000 immigrants from all sources, or an average of 372,000 a year. If this rate had been maintained the succeeding eleven years would have brought the Dominion over 2,500,000 new citizens from outside. If for domestic reasons the pace had somewhat slackened, the increase in population from outside from 1914 to 1921 would surely have exceeded 2,000,000.

But the War intervened and the tide of immigration ceased to flow. The influx of newcomers fell off to a mere dribble. Great Britain and the Continent of Europe were practically eliminated as sources of population and the stream of American settlers dwindled to a minimum. During the whole seven-year period we received only about 550,000 from all sources, or 2,000,000 fewer than might have been expected had the world's peace been undisturbed. Nor must sight be lost of the fact that the outbreak of the War and the progress thereof caused great numbers of newly arrived foreigners to leave the country. Tens of thousands joined the colors of the alited armies. Other tens of thousands fied to the United States to escape service. Add Canada's sixty thousand dead Overseas and the children that should have been theirs. Altogether the action of Germany in July and August, 1914, has robbed Canada of perhaps 3,000,000 men, women and children who otherwise would have been hers to-day. This primarily is what is wrong with Canada at the present moment But for the War the Dominion would have had more people on the land and consequently fewer unemployed in the towns and cities. Under such conditions the nation would have me some show at keeping pace with the overhead charges imposed by two new trans-continental railways constructed before their time. There would have been a growing volume of freight and passenger business which naturally would have reduced the heavy deficits on these roads and gone far to place the whole country on a sound financial basis.

The lesson is plain. More popula tion is the cure for Canada's fiscal and omic ills. The leeway lost during the last seven years must be recover Once the general election is over the government of the day must devote special attention to the task of getting more people on the soil. From 20,-000,000 to 30,000,000 acres of idle land along the Western railways must be brought under the plow. There is ample room for tens of thousands of additional farmers in old Ontario, New Ontario, British Columbia and the Maritime Provinces. Closer settle-ment of the land will mean a growing volume of exports, a wider home market for the products of Canadian factories, the reduction of unemployment in towns and cities, healthier industrial conditions everywhere, rising public revenues, and a progressive easing of the per capita burden of national taxation.

The kind of settlers desired are available in adequate numbers Great Britain, the United States, Norway, Sweden and other approved countries. What is needed is a forward constructive immigration policy -a policy which while taking note of existing unemployment and safe guarding the interests of organized labor, will not only remove unneces obstacles to an intensive land settlement movement but actively promote such a movement in keeping with the needs of the nation. In the working out of such a program invaluable co-operation may be expected from the railways, the Provincial Governments, Colonization Associations and other immigration agencies. That way lies the road back to na prosperity and economic stational bility for all classes in the community.

ENORMOUS DEMAND IS UNPRECEDENTED.

Tanlac Biggest Thing of Kind Ever Seen There, Says Big Wholesaler.

The fact that 625,000 bottles of Tanac have been sold in the state of New York since its introduction there less than one year ago, is a big business item that will attract unusual attention throughout the entire East, for nothing like it has ever happened before. It breaks all records.

Mr. George B. Evans, manager of the Gibson-Snow Company, the well-known wholesale druggists, with branches in Albany, Buffalo, Roch er and Syracuse, recently announced that the preparation was now selling in their trade territories alone at the phenomenal rate of approximately 500,000 bottles a year.

"If the present rate continues," said Mr. Evans, "this state alone will probably require considerably over 750,000 bottles a year. This is a tremendous figure, but I am really conservative in naking this statement."

Tanlac is sold by leading druggists everywhere.

Habit is always forging chains to enslave us, that what has been found bearable by the fathers is accepted by the sons.

As children, we were not permitted to drink tea or coffee, because it would stunt our growth or make us nervous and irritable. When older, however, we craved a hot drink with meals, and custom gave us our tea or coffee.

Finally upon the instructions of the doctor, Mother gave up her tea and coffee. But that meant nothing in our young lives. Our vitality was then strong enough to throw off any ill effects. But our time came, and we learned by experience that we could not drink tea or coffee.

When we had it for breakfast it put our nerves on edge. When we drank it at the evening meal, we tossed about in wakefulness most of the night. And then we found Postum, a pure cereal beverage, free from the harmful drug, caffeine, in tea and coffee. We liked the rich, satisfying flavor of Postum-and also the better health which resulted. And, too, we were surprised to find how many of our neighbors had made the same dis-
