The great amount of design work done at the Victoria Avenue Green House is sufficient proof of the excellence of the work.

INAPPROPRIATE.

Who Wonder the Lawyer's Address Was a Failure.

The real critic is always a man with a history, and this is true of a comparatively young Pittsburg lawyer, who views all sweet girl graduates with unnatural distrust.

By this time the master of ceremonies was squirming about uneasily, and the class of girls in the front row of seats looked anything but pleased.

Observant Little Charles. As has been said before, Charles is a very observing boy.

Solving a Difficulty. "Some people are thoroughly unhappy if they have to pay a fare on a railroad."

The Doctor's Credentials. Sick Man—Is this the Western sanitarium?

Information Wanted. Passenger on southern railway—What kind of a train is this, conductor—a local freight?

Merely an Amateur. Heless—But, you see, you want pictures to sell.

Grows on Her. Inexperienced Parent—I do think a little girl baby is the dearest thing in the world.

Not Serious. Passenger (to station porter)—Now it's 4 o'clock, and the time table says the train arrives at 3:14.

Trouble Below. Father Neptune—What's that howl of lamentation?

Those Loving Girls. Maud—He followed me with his eyes for nearly a block.

Mrs. Charles Griffin writes: "For a long time my health was very poor. I was pale, weak, and had no courage to do the least thing that I had to do."

Mrs. CHARLES GRIFFIN, 25 Straight St., Grand Rapids, Mich.

On nearly every block in Japanese cities is a public oven. By one of these, the dinner and supper are cooked for them.

Corn Sowing. Is a process excited by vanity, backed up by good, tight boots—you may back the vanity, but you may wear your good, tight boots—you may wear your good, tight boots...

Deadly La Grippe. Numbers its victims by thousands, leaves a deadly trail of disease and weakness behind it.

Sloth makes all things difficult, but industry all things easy.—Franklin.

Core Throat. and hoarseness with their attendant dangers may be speedily averted and remedied by the use of Nervine.

Good humor is one of the best articles of dress one can wear in society.—Thackeray.

A HELPLESS CHILD. A weak and puny child is badly handicapped in the battle of life.

Kindness is wisdom; there is none in life but needs it and may learn.—Bible.

Messrs. C. C. Richards & Co., Ypsmouth, N. S. Gentlemen.—In January last, Francis Leclair, one of the men employed by me working in the lumber woods, had a tree fall on him, crushing him fearfully.

Hereditary honors are a noble and splendid treasure to descendants.—Plato.

The Governor's Wife a Prisoner. Mrs. Z. A. Van Loven is the wife of the governor of the county jail, Nanapan, Ont., and was a great sufferer from rheumatism.

Gold by J. W. McLaren, Chatham. Grey hairs are death's blossoms. Death does not blow a trumpet.

Scrofula in the blood shows itself sooner or later in swellings, sores, eruptions. But Hood's Sarsaparilla completely cures.

MEMORANDUM.

"Richard Croker," says a woman writer who has studied him, "cares for no man as he does for his horse."

James A. Carr, the chairman of the executive committee of the National Agricultural Implement and Vehicle Association, has been elected its president.

Count von Waldsee receives as commanding officer of the Germans in China $500 a month besides $750 as field marshal and $2,500 for what is known as "table money."

Admiral Sampson's son, who is to enter the Naval academy next year, has shown a remarkable aptitude for mathematics and has already mastered the elements of navigation.

Russell Sage attended a political meeting in New York city during the recent campaign and surprised most of those who heard him by recalling that many years ago he was a political power himself, having been mayor of Troy one term and two terms in congress.

Colonel John M. Brooks, who designed the ram Merrimac and thus revolutionized marine warfare, is still living in Lexington, professor emeritus of physics in the Virginia Military Institute. He is now 79 years old, but is still vigorous and active on the outskirts of the city to the postoffice at the same hour every morning.

The London papers record the death of Julius Lipman, nicknamed "Leather Apron," a cobbler, who in 1880 fell under suspicion of being "Jack the Ripper."

Joseph Chamberlain's reputation as the English colonial secretary who never saw a colony is about to be shattered by a trip to Malta. Mr. Chamberlain suggests that Lord Lansdowne, the war minister, having never been in war, hasten to South Africa, while the Indian secretary, Lord George Hamilton, repair his reputation by making a first visit to India as the guest of Lord Curzon.

Alfred S. Kitson, whose father, Commodore W. Kitson, was rated as a millionaire 15 years ago, has been appointed inspector of billboards in the St. Paul buildings department at a salary of $90 a month. Young Kitson received an inheritance of $100,000 on his twenty-fifth birthday anniversary, but spent it. He will draw another large installment when he shall have attained his thirtieth year. Meantime he is forced to go to work.

Don't leave your rooms in the morning with an empty stomach. Don't open your back near a heated oven or against a wall, warm or cold. Don't remain motionless in a cold room and do not stand in an open space, on ice or snow.

Don't leave your abode in cold weather without warm wraps around your shoulders and breast. Never expose yourself to cold air immediately after you have partaken of a warm liquid of any kind.

Don't stand before an open window in a railway carriage or take a drive in an open carriage after violent physical exercises.

Don't retire with cold or wet feet. Nothing prevents sleep with so much certainty as the neglect of your pedal extremities.

Begin respiration in the cold by breathing through the nose. This will give the air a chance to get warm before reaching the lungs.

Don't put off your regular bath. When the skin is not kept fresh and soft, the cold draws the pores together and you are rendered susceptible to pulmonary troubles of all kinds.

THE BEAR. Russia is verifying the reports of a peaceful settlement by continuing to charter transports for China.

THE NEW CENTURY. The only cloud on the horizon is the possibility of a resumption of the twentieth century debate.—Minneapolis Tribune.
