CORRESPONDENCE.
TO THE EDITOR OF THE ACADIAN.
DEAR SIR,—Once more I ask the privilege to reply to Mr. Coy, whose communication appeared in the last issue of the Acadian. Again he indulges in his pet word "false." In every agreement of sale of which I have had any knowledge since being president of the Wolfville Fruit Land Imp. Co., the restriction clause to which I referred was mentioned. Since becoming manager of the Company I have written all deeds conveying lots save one, and that one was Havelock Coy's. In every deed I have written the restriction clause was mentioned in its entirety. If as Mr. Coy states a portion of the restriction clause was left out of his deed, he may be able to give the reason why. Mr. Coy when in Wolfville made an exchange with me for his lots with the understanding that the restriction clause would be inserted, but he failed to keep his agreement. I do not fear the investigation of the Company to which he alludes nor does his impudence disturb me.

Yours truly,
G. E. DeWitt.

Wolfville, Dec. 18th, '95.

The educational institutions on the hill closed for the holidays on Tuesday, and the majority of the students left for their homes on Wednesday. We are glad to note the absence this year of that exhibition of rowdiness which usually marks the last night of the term. This is probably another result of the presence of a police officer, one that will be appreciated by the people of Wolfville.
