

RUSSIANS NOT WORRYING OVER RETREAT AS THEY ARE WEAKENING THEIR ADVERSARIES

London, June 29.— Russian armies capture of Lemberg and other Galician successes have brought the Austro-Germans no nearer to a solution of the war. In spite of their enormous advance, after a visit to the same stubborn army as before, which is willing to keep fighting for years, if necessary. The Germans must continue pouring in fresh troops in order to hold their positions, for if they take them away to defend other fronts the whole edifice of the Austrian defensive will collapse. "The Russian point of view is that they can retreat and advance again indefinitely, saving little for the moral effect of loss of towns as long as they are constantly weakening their adversaries and preventing a trench deadlock such as exists in the western and Warsaw fronts."

GERMANS CLAIM THEY ARE STILL PUSHING THE RUSSIANS AHEAD OF THEM

Berlin, June 29.—The official statement given out today by the German High Command states that the Austro-German forces are now on Russian territory.

BRITISH MILITARY CRITICS DECLARE THIS TO BE DUE TO A BATTLE IN THE LEMBERG REGION, WHERE RUSSIANS HELD A POOR POSITION—TEUTONIC ARMY STRENGTHENS HOLD ON GALICIAN CAPITAL—ARTILLERY DUELS ON WEST FRONT—GERMANS UNABLE TO WITHDRAW TROOPS FROM FAR EAST—ITALIANS MAKE PROGRESS STEADILY—ALLIES ARE BOMBARDING TURKISH RIGHT WING.

London, June 29.—The Russian centre in Galicia is rapidly reforming behind the river Gnila Lipa before General Von Linsingen's drive across the Dneister. This retreat, in the opinion of London military critics, is almost entirely due to a battle in the Lemberg region, where the positions of the Russians made their retirement inevitable. These movements have strengthened the Austro-German line and have consolidated the hold of the Teutonic army on the regained Galician capital.

RUSSIAN CENTRE REFORMING BEHIND RIVER GNILA LIPA

London, June 29.—The Russian centre in Galicia is rapidly reforming behind the river Gnila Lipa before General Von Linsingen's drive across the Dneister. This retreat, in the opinion of London military critics, is almost entirely due to a battle in the Lemberg region, where the positions of the Russians made their retirement inevitable.
