It was a great honor and benefit to Canada to have the said that this expenses of the members of the British association who might come out to the meeting in Montreal in August next. for the Advancement of Science, $25, meeting in Montreal in August next.

It was a great honor and benefit to Canada to have the meeting of the Association, not only as a matter of science, but they also leaded an it. science, but they also looked on it in a practical and commercial sense. They believed it was the best advertisement that could be given to Canada to have these distinguished scientists, not only from England, but from the con tinent, pay us a visit. It was proposed while they were here to have them visit various parts of the country, and the railway companies had offered most advantageous terms for this purpose. It was proposed to assist the passages of these gentlemen across the across the ocean. They hoped that as a body they would see Canada thoroughly, and that many them there is a body they would see Canada thoroughly, and that many them there is a body they would see Canada thoroughly, and that many them there is a body they would see Canada thoroughly, and that many them the second that the second tha oughly, and that when they returned to England they would make a report favorable to Canada, as had been the ment of agriculture a few years ago and who went home sound-ing only praises of Canada, and had been acting as voluntary immigration agents ever since. Big Fire in London.

London, April 3 .- A dozen houses, establishments, including the religious tract society's building, in Paternoster Row, were gutted by fire tonight. The loss was very heavy.

LATER.—The fire originated in the printing house of Pardon & Sons, Lovells Court, Paternoster Row. This was the house of Faudel Phillips & Sons, importers of toys and fancy goods of all kinds, in Newgate street; the large book bindery of Smith Bros, in Ivy lane; and the music publishing house of B. Williams, in Paternoster row, were completely destroyed damage is as great as by the Wood street fires. The favorable direction of the wind saved St. Paul's cathedral. Overhead the wires were bent double NO LADY who desires to have nice hands and a good complexion should be without a bottle of Estey's Fragrant Philoderma on the Tollet Table.

A Disgusted Farmer.

A "Disgusted Former" writes thus to the Winnipeg Times:—The great farce has ended, the bubble has burst, and the world now knoweth that there is such a place as Winnipeg, and the Northwest, and that we, the noble army of retired gentlemen, doctors, land agents and one-horse farmers, have immortalized our names as the worst enemies of this our beloved country. We have in connection with our great high priest and advocate, the Free Press, shown to the world the keen interest we take in the ruin world the keen interest we take in the ruin and downfall of this our adopted land. We have also shown to the world a new We have also shown to the world a new principle—that the interests of the many must and shall be sacrificed for the benefit of the few. We have also advocated the principle held by all rogues and tyrants-from time immemorial, that of repudiation and coercion, and in that we insist that our Dominion Government must and shall break faith with the C. P. R. under the dire penalty of stopping all immigrants coming to this country. What matter though the Dominion Government lose its good name and credit and become a slur and bye-word all over the world? What though the C. P. R. be ruined, we must and will have our rmers' rights, and by stopping all im-igration and decreasing the traffic on the migration and decreasing the trains on the C. P. R. shall we not have the pleasure of forcing them to reduce their high rates, and thereby be enabled to get a few more cents per bushel for our wheat? All these and many more things are we doing by issuing our grand and glorious edict that no more immigrants shall come to this our beloved country until our unjust and absurd demands are complied with.
