An Enthusiastic Regatta Meeting.

Earnestness and enthusiasm were the dominant features in connection with the initial Regatta Committee held last night. Mr. A. W. Hiscock was then appointed Vice-President; Mr. J. P. Crotty, Treasurer; and Mr. James L. Noonan, Secretary.

The following gentlemen were then added to the committee:—

If a white mayonnaise is wanted, select white shelled eggs which have a pale yellow yolks than the dark ones, and use lemon juice instead of vinegar for acidifying it. Whipped cream folded in at the last moment improves mayonnaise for most purposes.

Man Breaks Leg. At 7 p.m. yesterday a man named John Fitzgerald, of 88 Barnes Road, while walking along near the old railway track at the rear of Mr. J. W. Withers' cottage, fell over the embankment and broke his leg above the knee. The police were 'phoned for and Head Const. Sheppard and Const. O'Keefe responded and rendered "first aid." They then summoned Dr. Macpherson, who temporarily splinted the fracture and had the patient taken to Hospital in the ambulance.

RETURNED FROM BOSTON.—Mr. C. O'Regan, formerly a shoemaker of the West End, this city, returned from Boston by the express yesterday. Casuals Defeat St. Ben's

The football match between the Casuals and St. Ben's, which took place last evening, drew a fair audience to St. George's Field. The line up was:—

Casuals.—Foster, goal; Herder, Macpherson, backs; Miller, Brown, Fraser, halves; Penny, Shortall, Lumsden, Dick, Cunningham, forwards.

St. Ben's.—Hearn, goal; Rawlins, Firth, backs; Byrne, Power, Shortall, halves; Meehan, Templeman, Walsh, W. Callahan, R. Callahan, forwards.

Winning the toss the Casuals defended the western goal with the wind and sun in their favor, and after the kick off play was even for a while until the Casuals put up steam and made an aggressive movement, keeping on St. Ben's goal for some time.

After about 15 minutes' play, Cunningham from the wing drove the ball across the goal mouth and St. Lumsden put it into the net, scoring first blood for Casuals. St. Ben's now made several attempts to score but were blocked. Shortly before half time Miller found the net, scoring No. 2 for Casuals. The teams crossed at half time—Casuals, 2; St. Ben's, 0.

SECOND HALF.

St. Ben's at the start made a rush on Casuals goal, when Templeman made a good shot but sent the ball too high to score, and shortly after W. Callahan secured the first goal for the boys in blue and gold. Shortly after this R. Shortall notched up No. 3 goal for Casuals, and after another period Miller scored No. 4 for them. In a scuffle opposite Casuals goal St. Ben's scored their second goal. The game concluded—Casuals, 4 goals; St. Ben's, 2.

Notes From Salmonier.

The children's picnic that was to take place at St. Joseph's, on Coronation Day, in the field adjoining the Presbytery, owing to the condition of the weather, was held in the Parish Hall. About sixty children attended, and although the weather was not suitable for their having any outdoor games, they evidently enjoyed themselves to a great extent.

The Parish Church, at St. Joseph's, where the repairs were only begun a year previously is now almost finished. A new Sacristy and two chimneys have been built, the Sanctuary has been finished, and the painting of the outside of the Church is almost finished. The improvements during the past year on the schools and church are a plain proof of the interest taken in the parish by both pastor and people.

Prospero Celebrates Coronation.

The Coronation was celebrated on the s.s. Prospero while north in a style which does credit to her captain and crew. The saloon was decorated with flags and otherwise embellished, and the ship was dressed in bunting. Capt. Kean summoned all passengers to the bridge deck where hearty cheers were given for the King and Queen, and the National Anthem was sung by all present. Owing to a thick fog the Prospero remained at Exploits for the night, and then an impromptu patriotic concert was held in the saloon, and excellent vocal selections were given, besides recitations and speeches. "God Save the King" sung in unison concluded a most enjoyable time.

Boys Go Scouting.

Yesterday afternoon the Collegian troop of Boy Scouts went for a tramp up the South Side Hills and will remain in the country for a few days, where they will engage in bridge building, tent making, &c., signalling and observing generally the rules of the camp. After arriving they had tea and then began working on their camps, which they made from the boughs. They are under scout-masters Berry and Goodman, and assistant scout master Hutchings. They have located an ideal place for such exercises.

Uncle Walt

THE POET PHILOSOPHER.

I said: "I'll sing a cheery song, and keep it up the whole day long; though every hour many troubles bring, I'll drive them off, and sing, and sing!" And so I warbled as I went, till neighbors came. In discontent, and cried: "For heaven's sake, let up! OPTIMIST You're squawking like a poisoned pup, until the babies cannot sleep, and mothers grit their teeth and weep. Your voice is like a guinea hen's; then why disturb these quiet glens, and shatter all the window glass, and scare the horses as they pass? The modest workman does his chores, and never yells, and never roars; he does not whinny like a shoat, or bellow like an angry goat; he does not like a rooster crow, and fill the neighbourhood with woe." And still I sing my joyous lay, while bricks and boots and balms of wax, and long, dead cats, and loaves of bread, and fossil bones whiz past my head.

Bonavista Branch.

The road is now finished to within a mile of Bonavista. The men are building a trestle across Brown's Pond and ballasting the road where such is needed on different sections between Trinity and the end of the rails. The work of building a station at Bonavista will be commenced soon. The track layers who were working on the Bonavista branch have all been suited to the Trepassay branch with their outfit, and work of laying track there was started by a large gang yesterday morning.

Straits Full of Ice.

The s.s. Home returned to Bay of Islands from Battle Harbor at 11:30 last night. The following message was sent to the R. N. Co. by Capt. Jacob Kran: "Arrived at Battle Hr. at 3 p.m. Saturday after a continuation of easterly winds and thick fog during the trip. Ice extends from Battle Harbor to Blanc Sablon, and from the latter place west to Mecatina Islands the ice is closely packed. Impossible for the fishermen to do anything with traps. From Flow-er's Cove up on the N.W. side, a good sign of fish."
