ALL ASTRAY.

We find in the Elora Times of the week the following funny statement. Speaking of Peel Township being detached from North Wellington, our contemporary says :--- contemporary says:—

"The fact is Mr. D. w is rather weakened than strengthaned by the change, for although Peel gave a small majority against him at the last election, there is the lest resson for believing that it would give him a majority at the next contest provided it remained a part of the North Riding is we make this assertion on a basis we have rosen to think reliable. It is clear from the above latt the Times does not stick at triffes. It can swallow the gnatiand with equal case bolt the cameling that he been like above is the biggest—we were going to use another word but we will call it—story that we have seen for some time. Why, every body knows that Mr. Drew has been labouring to get Peel detached from the North Riding all the session. He kept dogging John A. for weeks with his scheme for a re-division to the Ridings in his pocket, but that astuce politic in kept him in the dark as to his intentions till near the close of the session order that Drew might show his loyalty to the party and that he had carned these favours from his leader by a blind submission to the Riding and the Herald at his back. Covernment policy, and a willingness to vote for all their measures. Thay ing thus proved himself the veriest tool in their hands, the fears of this to vote for all their measures. Haying thus proved himself the verious stabilitied to a severe surgical operation which their kands, the fears of this trembling Tory were allayed by taking Peel out of the way, which was to him a formidable lion in the path. The Times, tries to smootle over the matter by saying that Peel, had it occupied its old position, would have given Mr. Drew a majority. This is whopper number two. Had Mr. Tim Mancar Cornen.—It seems that one of the 130 votes in this Division, will be ought to have been recorded for have been the result, we would not have been the result, we would not have seen the result was a severe surgical operation within the form which we shall the form whether the subject to a deap was a severe surgical operation white it is feared shortened his on whith it is feared shortened then when his on whith the fear two and a stufied to a severe surgical operation which will be with the fear two and a large through the two and a stufied skin is to be placed shortened his on whith the feared shortened his on whith the fear two and a large. His heightwas 11 feet two and a large. His heightwas 11 feet two and a large which will be a large that the country of the second shortened shorte oyen the faint hope that such could have been the result, we would not have been the result of the second that have been the result of the second of the theory of trach in them, for those ontained in the above extract are totally devoid of that commodity. The Times goes on to say that the Maxer ay is troubled about the redivision of the County, because under the new arrangements the Tories will have a chances to carry the Centre Riding. All we have to say to that is that they had better try it. Reform principles are too strongly intrenched in the Centre Riding to be in the least affected or shaken by a Tory assult. Should the Tory convention at Fergus nominate a candidate to run, he merely runs to secure certain and crushing defeat. We are equally tranqual in spirit about the South Riding, the surmises of the Times to the contrary, notwithstanding. Erin and Erannosa will, as of yore, throw their weight and influence with the Reform party, and astonish the Times and all other Tory organs by their manimity in passing sentence of condemnation on the corrupt Government now in power, and which they are doing their best to bolster up and defend.
