

MANUFACTURERS' SAMPLES OF WALL PAPER 1903 DESIGNS

On account of our fire sale last spring clearing out our stock of Wall Paper, we have had to do some fall hustling to secure a stock to supply the fall demand and we've had a time, as the manufacturers make papers in the spring only and they are all sold out of last spring's run.

But we have succeeded. We have more than succeeded. We prevailed upon the makers to sell us their 1903 samples—something they never do. We bought the "sample run" from Messrs Colin McArthur & Co., Montreal, at prices that will enable us to sell 25 to 40 per cent. lower than the same grades of 1902 papers. These samples came to hand on Wednesday, Sept. 10th, some 10,000 rolls in the lot with prices ranging from 5c to 40c a roll and 24 to 40 rolls in each lot.

Remember each design is strictly next season's style. When the manufacturers make samples for their travellers they run off 50 rolls of each design. We bought what left after the travellers' samples were made. We will sell these sample lots cheaper than the same paper will sell next spring. We've real bargains for this fall.

1,000 Rolls paper damaged by fire, half price
5,000 Rolls 1902 Paper at 25 per cent. off.
10,000 Roll 1903 "sample run" paper at 25 to 40 per cent. off.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS.

Mrs. L. Timpany is visiting friends in New York City.

Mr. and Mrs. Parsons, of Ridgeway, were visitors at the home of Mrs. Gould last week.

Mr. J. E. Potts, of Toronto, called on a few of his friends in Aylmer on Thursday.

Mr. John Matthews, near Fairview, had three head of cattle killed by lightning on Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Mabee, who have been visiting in town returned to Vittoria on Friday.

Miss Nellie Hallowell, who has been visiting friends in Clinton, returned home on Friday.

Have you seen Mrs. Stephen Pierce's out door Hydrangia. Don't miss it. It's a beauty.

Five days, eighteen hours and thirty seconds, is the new Atlantic record, made by the steamer Oceanic.

E. N. Draper has a very fine leather exhibit at the Toronto Fair, consisting of fly nets, leather coats, mitts, suspenders, etc.

The choir of the Methodist church has been greatly strengthened by the addition of Messrs. Lutz and Teetzel, tenor and bass respectively.

Every indication points to the fact that the Stratfordville fair which takes place on Wednesday next, will be the most successful ever held there. It is always a good place to go.

The interior of the Palace Rink now presents a very fine appearance, having been painted and a stage and new band stand added, which will make it an ideal spot for all entertainments.

Mr. Jesse Kinsey and his niece, Miss VanPatter, who have been on a month's visit through the Western States, returned on Friday and report an excellent trip and both are feeling much benefited from the outing.

It is risking something to ask the public to place a piece of fiction alongside of Poe's best work. The Editor of The Cosmopolitan ventures this in the following note, which appears in the September issue. "One does not often find a story which seems to come in the classification of Edgar Allen Poe's best work. Yee one might be tempted to ask such a place for The Canonic Curse, which Arthur E. McFarlane contributes to The Cosmopolitan for September.

The East Elgin Union Sunday School Association fittingly observed Labor Day, Sept. 1st, by holding its annual convention at Richmond. The morning session opened with a good attendance, at the afternoon and evening sessions there were crowded audiences. The reports of the secretaries of the county and township of Malahide associations were favorable and showed that the finances of both associations were in good shape. The addresses the convention was privileged to listen to were inspiring, being full of practically instructive lessons, which must be productive of good results. The address of welcome by the Rev. Mr. Lloyd was especially suitable to the occasion. Amongst the good things he said he assured the delegates and visitors that they had the freedom of the homes of the citizens in and around Richmond for the day. The Rev. Mr. Rae's 'Normal Lesson' at the afternoon session was one of the most interesting features of the whole programme of the convention. Mr. Rae is not only a fluent speaker and a thorough bible student, but he is a model bible class teacher. The addresses of Mr. Thos. McGillicuddy, of Toronto, on Culture, Character and Consecration in the afternoon and on Rough Diamonds in the evening, were listened to with a great deal of interest and attention. The former address concerned parents and Sunday School teachers and was an earnest appeal for purity of life and better knowledge of the scriptures. The latter especially concerned teachers and was a strong plea for tact and patience in dealing with boys who were hard to manage in Sunday School. From this class of boys came some of the best men of our country. As boys they were 'diamonds in the rough and diamonds sure enough.' Two of the speakers on the programme for the evening sessions being unavoidably absent, the Rev. Mr. McDonald, a Springfield pastor, kindly consented to speak in their stead. He gave a delightful address on 'Some Things Needed in Sunday School Work.' Great credit is due to the Richmond people for the splendid entertainment given to all delegates and visitors. Their spirit-stirring cordiality was a very enjoyable feature of the convention. The officers elected for the ensuing year are as follows:—For the county association, Warren Henry, president, Mr. Andrews assistant and Geo. Lemon, sec.-treas. For the Malahide association, Mr. J.W. Hutchinson, president, Wm. Mann, vice-pres. and Chas. Kaiser sec.-treas.

Card of Thanks.

I hereby wish to thank all my friends for their great kindness to me in my recent trouble. Their sending me to the hospital I believe will result in my complete return to health.

Yours sincerely,
JOHN JOHNSON, Richmond.
