Shubal Hill Tells of Lack of Ambition and the Cure.

He writes from Hamilton, Dec. 9, 1890, as follows:
Isaac Williams Company, London, Ont.:
Dear Sirs—After suffering for a long time with pain in my back, extending to my lower parts, also no ambition to do my daily work, I was induced by Mr. Bickell to try Royal Crown Kennedy. After taking two bottles, and Mr. Bickell, as directed, I consider myself entirely cured, and can highly recommend your medicine, B. C. R. and Pills to do all you claim them to do, should be in every home. It saves hundreds of dollars in doctors' bills. Yours truly,
SHUBAL HILL,
177 Cannon Street, East.

including the following: Instrumentals by Miss Campbell, of Melbourne; quartets, Messrs. Armstrong and Prescott, and Miss A. Prescott, and J. Campbell; address by Mr. A. J. Abundance of refreshments, including coffee and cake, was disposed of at intermission.
