

Mr. Herman Hicks

Deaf for a Year Catarrh in the Head

Catailii III the Fiead Catarh is a Constitutional disease, and requires a Constitutional disease,
and requires a Constitutional Remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla to cure it. Read:
"Three years ago, as a result of catarrh, I editely lost my hearing and was deaf for more han a year. I tried various things to cure it, and had year all physicians attempt it, but no major no sound. I was intending putting again under the care of a specialist when any one suggested that possibly Hood's Sarterrally would do me some good. I began adding the without the expectation of any lasthu

Hood's Sarsaparilla

(Continued from Page 1.)

Ward Six.

Affairs went quietly in Ward 6, the majority of the electors being at the City Hall. Six names were mentioned for addermanie bunors and two declined—Geo. Trebilcock and Wm. Rowe.

Candidate.

Proposer.

Geo. Deacon.

J. C. Judd.

Geo. Deacon.

J. C. Judd.

J. C. Judd.

J. C. Judd.

J. C. Judd.

Win Rowe.

W. F. Howell W. C. Hoover For School. TRUSTER.

Mr. R. J. Blackwell was declared elected by seclemation as school trustee. mution as school trustee.

LONDON WEST. LONDON WEST.
The nominations for candidates for munipal honors in London West were held in joilins' Hall last evening. Mr. W. H. hartram, clerk of the village, was returnng officer. The meeting was not of the lost orderly character. The nominations tree as follows:

Candidate.

Candidate.

Proposet.
E. Pudney
J. McCorven
W. Snith
J. McCorven
J. B. Allchby
J. McCorven
J. B. Simms
W. Snith
J. McCorven
J. B. C. Medonal
L. Hammond
E. Pudney
J. McCorven
W. Bailey
W. Bailey
W. Bailey
J. McCorven
J. B. C. Medonal
W. Barlett
W. Bailey
B. C. Medonal
W. Barlett
W. Sponce
Meisrs. Pudney, Ramsay, Smith and Fitzgerald declined and others may decline to-day.

FOR DEPUTY REEVE. DEPUTY REFYE.
Proposer.
D.A. Donaidson W.L. Brown
W. Hamilton
W. Hamilton
W. Hamilton
W. Hamilton
L. Hammond
L. Hammond
L. Hammond
L. Hammond
W. T. Duff Hammond, Duff and

Condidate FOR COUNCILORS.

Candidate FOR COUNCILORS.

Wh. Scence Levi Hammond John Chapton Washing For Concept Work Part Concept Washing For Conce

D. A. Donaldson H. Ramsay
W. Tyler

W. Lertlett

W. Hammond Messrs. Crockett, Leigh, Feekings, Bailey and Jones declined, and others will likely follow.

The nominees were heard after the hour for taking nominations had expired, but the chairman und Constable Ward were unable to keep order. Messrs. J. Platt, W. Scarrow, John Chapman, W. Spence, D. Collins, W. Smith, D. C. Maedonald, H. Ramssy, A. R. Murdock, R. F. Lacey, W. T. Duil and W. L. Brown spoke. All were in favor of amalgamation to the city except the last four mentioned, and the last two were dubious.

VOTE against the 7 o'clock bylaw you workingmen who honor equal lights and liberty. Do not be a stave to a fanatical fad, but insist upon your rivileges being respected by all, and demand the same liberty of action $8 your opposed have. Formal mand the same liberty of actic your opponents have. Etern giance is the price of liberty. verilsement.

Do not be misled by specious talk of any ind into voting for the Saloon. Vote for kind into voting for the Saloon. Vote for the Home. Vote for closing the caloons at 7 clock. Workingmen, vote for the good of your boys, who are the hope of the future.—[Advt. 44tf Newest (loths and Shades.

ULSTERS.

BUTTONS. TO MATCH. MADE UP STYLISH AND NOIBY AT VERY CLOSE PRICES.

Very Large Stock of Suitings. CALL AND SEE THEM.

HARRY LENOX LERCHART VAILOR

IN THE EAST END.

The Ward Campaign Opens With a Rousing Meeting.

No Less Than Fifteen Speakers Discuss Municipal Topics.

The Mayoralty, Aldermanic and School-Board Cardidates on the Platform -The Early Closing Movement Advocated-Some Lively Addresses.

No less than fifteen speakers addressed the intelligent electors of ward 5 last night. It was the first ward meeting of the campaign. The East End hall was full and the audience on the whole was most attentive and orderly, being composed largely of representative citizens. A few individuals were inclined to be noisy, but were promptly sat upon. Squire Jarvis presided, and called the speakers in the order pre-arranged. Every question on the municipal slate was touched upon.

THE EARLY CLOSING MOVEMENT.

The first address was made by Rev. Mr. Ward, of the Hamilton Road Methodist Church, in favor of the closing of bars at 7 o'clock. It was now admitted, he said, that liquor was a cerebral narcetic poison; that it should be under control and not used as a beverage, but only upon the physician's prescription. No one could say the liquor business was carried on for the public good. Nine-tenths of the erime and debauchery of the present times was traceable to this evil. It was in their power to trow off this onus by means of their votes. Temperance people were really modest in placing the hour at 7 instead of 6. By the extinction of this great evil nine-tenths of the poorhouses, jails and asylums would be liberated and in their right minds. Early closing would not interfere with the traveling public; the houses would still be open, but the liquor would be placed on one side. (Applause.)

Ald. Yates said he was there in the cause of temperance and in the interfere with the traveling public; the houses would still be open, but the liquor would be placed on one side.

but the liquor would be placed on one side.
(Applause.)
Ald. Yates said he was there in the cause of temperance and was in hearty sympathy with the movement. The only interference with liberty would be with that kind which would not permit a man to go hence recling drunk and beat his wife and children. (Applause.) Since the restriction of the last couple of years there had been a reduction of nearly 50 per cent. in crime. (Applause.) The saloon-keepers deserved no compensation. He strongly favored the free library, and put in a good word for the reduction of the wards, which he had moved to submit to the people.

of the wards, which he had moved to submit to the people.

THE ALDEIMANIC CANDIDATES,
Ald. Dreaney opposed Ald. Yates' scheme of ward reduction. London East wouldn't be in it; it was a plan for concentrating everything in the main part of the city. Speaking of the 7 o'clock closing question, he said he was not opposed to submitting it to the people. He seconded the motion to submit it to the solicitor to see if it was legal, but the rest of the council seemed to be weak kneed because so many ladies and temperance people and ministers were there, and they put it through. As to the street railway 'tranchise, he thought cheap farce better for the workingman than percentage.

candidate. They all knew him; he was a workingman and not much of a speech-maker. For one thing, he wouldn't do any workingman and not much of a speechmaker. For one thing, he wouldn't do anything wrong.

Ex-Mayor Murray Anderson said if elected he would do the best he could. In 1990 they elected him at the head of the poil for alderman; in 1891 they unelected him for mayor. He alluded to his connection with the consolidation of the city debt which he had first mooted. If his scheme had been carried out by the council the city would have been saved $50,000 a year.
If the L. and P. S. R. had been properly handled the city would have been getting its $40,000 a year and 1,500 workmen would be located here.

Thomas Sargeant said the people in the center of the city seemed to think the people in the fifth ward were a lot of imbe, ciles, They hadn't had a municipal election in London for ten years; it was air mixed up with politics.

Yoice-You're between the two, so you're all right, (Laughter.)

Mr. Sargeant—So a man should be in municipal business. There was another measley clique called the temperance people. If they went in for temperance straight he would support it. He despised nothing more than a drunkard. They had closed up 29 saloons and opened 27 screeones.

Yoice—How do you know? (Laughter.)

nothing more than a drunkard. They had closed up 29 saloons and opened 27 secret ones.

Voice—How do you know? (Laughter.) Mr. Sargeant—I am told so on good authority. Two-thirds of these very men that are talking temperance are the ones that drink liquor. (Ob ioh i) The council gave $75,000 to the C. P. R. for a shop that you couldn't swing a cat in without knocking his brains out. (Laughter.) Mr. Sargeant concluded with a sweeping denunciation of everything in general and a recommendation that the council be transferred to the lunatic asylum to see what they could do.

Dr. Gardiner declined nomination. He had tried his to do best on the Board of Health, and if the council saw fit to re-elect him next year he might be more useful than for years past. He alluded to the sewerage question. Ward 5 had no sewers and it devolved upon the citizens of it to require that a main sewer to include the whole city be built. This was a vital question for this end of the town and every other end, and people would realize it some day after a few hundred thousand dollars had been spent.

Mr. Walter Richards announced himself as a candidate for the school trusteeship. If he were elected the Smead-Dowd people would not warm the hands of the trustees. He asked if John Purdom's contract for meetings down in the city. If there was any little Jeffery-Allaster-Cook combine, he would break it. The people ought not to tut the whole blame of the high rates on the council; the school board helped to put the whole blame of the high rates on the taxes.

Mr. Joseph Sanders also said he was a condidate for the school board helped to put on the taxes.

Mr. Joseph Sanders also said he was a candidate for the school trustceship. He had no doubt there was wire-pulling on the had no doubt chere was weep change board. They had seen a good deal about the heating. If elected, he would examine the different systems and vote for the best. School Trustee Cook who happened to be present, replied to Mr. Richards' remark about the combine. He had always voted

The control of the product of the pr

Even now, after the rush of the past few weks, there is one store in London where you can be well served—our store. The statement means that you will find here complete assortments, fair prices, efficient service.

But we have something else—an inducement which doubtless will be taken advantage of by every lady in London. It will last for two weeks only. Here

We will give to every pur-chaser of goods to the value of $1 and upwards one of the cele-

NEW YORK STANDARD PATTERNS.

The Standard Patterns are the best published in the world, but are new in this locality. The regular prices of these run from 10 to 40 cents, but in order to introduce them here we will make this sacrifice, feeling confident that the ladies of London will not allow this golden opportunity to slip by unimproved. As this offer will continue for two weeks only you will do well

SMALLMAN & INGRAM

147 & 149 Dundas St.,

LONDON.

not the few, who could be easier bought. He would consider the salaried commission scheme when he found out what the duties of the commissioners were. Mr. J. W. Little said at the nomination that they should be careful to elect men with clean records. This was a vile insinuation against himself; he challenged, anyone to show a spot in his record.

It was about half way between 11 o'clock and midnight when Mr. Essery concluded, and the meeting broke up with a vote of thanks to the chairman.

A: SCREATON & CO.

This week it would be impossible to list all the useful articles we have collected for Christmas presents We couldn't do them justice in a newspaper space. We feel satisfied, though, that you can select something from our stock to suit your want WE WILL BE PLEASED to aid you. SEE OUR WINDOWS.

A. SCREATON & CO

134 Dundas Street:

The Greatest Yet

Has Been Our

20 Per Cent. Clothing Sale.

Store Crowded With Customers.

We will continue sale until Jan. 1.

The Clothiers.

