CAREFUL IN STORE ATTENTION—Add extra to caution to win the best results. Write me for a copy of an established, successful company, selling limited number of shares at low price to multiply present output, which already eliminates all risk and assures large profits on investment; quarterly dividends have been declared, balance of year, 15th July and October, at better rates than interest; shares will double in value before end of year; this is no mere speculation, but a legiti-mate business, enjoying permanent market at high price compared with cost of production. Be prompt if you mean business. George K. Morton, PLEASURE-SEEKERS

CAUGHT IN A GALE

Party of 20 Rescued by a Steamer—Newfoundland Fishermen's Peril.

New York, June 3.—Twenty persons who were caught on a yacht in Long Island Sound, in Sunday's gale, arrived at their homes safely early today. The yacht was owned by Chas.
E. Clark, a politician of the Bronx.
The party had failed to return up to midnight, and a general alarm was sent out. It developed that the yacht's rudder broke shortly after noon and the party, helpless before the gale, drifted in the course of the storm, while a passing steamer took them and landed them at Bayville, L. I.
Boston, June 3.—The harbor-master's office and the police stations along the water front were besieged today by anxious persons, inquiring for friends who went out in small craft yesterday, and had not returned when they were expected. More than twenty persons were missing this morning.

St. John's, Nfld., June 3.—News of the wreck of the steamer "Gale" which has prevailed along the coast line of Newfoundland since last Friday continue to arrive. In scores of harbors the storm has destroyed fishing property and many vessels have been damaged. Others have been driven to sea, and fears are entertained for their safety. The tide here on Friday was the highest known in seventeen years.
It is feared many disasters have occurred on the Grand Banks. The gale is still raging.

DISARMAMENT OF THE BOERS PROCEEDING SATISFACTORILY

Government Guards Surrender in a Body.

GENERAL DEWET SUPERINTENDS

How the Formalities are Conducted —The Women Feel Badly—Kruger Says He Will Stay in Holland.

PROCEEDING SATISFACTORILY.

London, June 8.—The war office has received the following from Lord Kitchener under today's date: "The disarmament of the Boers is proceeding satisfactorily, and good spirit is displayed everywhere. Yesterday 4-342 rifles had been surrendered up to date."

Dispatches received by the Associated Press from Pretoria confirm the statement made in Lord Kitchener's communication to the war office, and say that the whole staff of the Transvaal Government, with a bodyguard of 50 men, surrendered last Saturday.

THE FORMALITIES.

The following formalities are observed when Gen. Botha, Gen. Dewet, or when any of the Boer commanders accompany the British officer who has been detailed to receive surrenders:

The Boer leader goes out to meet a commando and returns at its head.
The Boers who come in are generally dressed in dilapidated clothing, but have a smart and soldierly bearing.

The Boers who are to surrender are assembled, and the Boer leader delivers an address to his men, urging them to listen to the British officer who has been detailed on this command. The British officer then makes a speech to the Boers, in which he informs them of the admiration of King Edward and the British nation for the gallant struggle and the bravery of their people, and promises that the British authorities will do their utmost to help them re-settle on their farms.

A meal is then provided for the Boers, and the British officer then makes a speech to the Boers, in which he informs them of the admiration of King Edward and the British nation for the gallant struggle and the bravery of their people, and promises that the British authorities will do their utmost to help them re-settle on their farms.

In many such instances the Boers have cheered King Edward, and they have sometimes expressed surprise that no army was sent out to receive the surrender of the Boers.

The Boers are then allowed to retain their horses and saddles, and the majority of them appear to be glad that the war is at an end.

Among the men who surrendered to the British authorities at Balmoral, Cape Colony, were four Americans, who will be granted free passage to Delagoa Bay.

WOMEN FEEL BADLY.

A few of the Boer women are still inveigling against surrender, but the general feeling among them is in favor of making the best of the situation.

Mr. Kruger declares that he will end his days in Holland.

A striking sign of the altered situation in South Africa is that Lord Milner, the British high commissioner, rode from Pretoria to Johannesburg last Sunday, accompanied only by two staff officers.

DEWET SUPERINTENDING.

Gen. Christian Dewet is personally superintending the surrenders of the Boers in the Vrededorp, Orange River district.

Gen. Schalkburger, former acting president of the Transvaal, who is the guest of the governor of Natal Colony, is also in the Vrededorp, and is emulating his former position in the concentration camp.

asked them to make the best of the situation, and to forget the past and future. He pointed out the uselessness of the war.

FATAL FIRE AT SARATOGA LIVED TO BE 33 YEARS OLD

One Person Killed, Three Injured and Eight Missing.

Vigorous David Smith Went to Circus Just Before He Died.

Arcade Building, Hotel and Theater Burned—Loss $300,000.

Saratoga, N. Y., June 8.—One person was killed, three injured persons are in a hospital, and eight are reported missing, by a fire here, early today which is estimated at $300,000, the value insurance of about $175,000.

THE VICTIMS.

Dead—Mrs. Mabik.
Injured—Fire Chief Chadwick, badly burned about head, fatally; it is feared that Mrs. Hart, servant girl, named unknown.

Missing—Out of thirteen people who slept in the Arcade building several cannot be accounted for, and are believed to be dead in the ruins. The missing are: Mrs. Owens, Mrs. M. C.
Hart, Mrs. Allen, Robert Howard and Mrs. Morris. Miss Morris, and Miss Ida Foster; Mrs. Mabik, who was fatally burned, was asleep in her apartment.

PROPERTY DESTROYED.

The fire started in the Arcade building, on Broadway, and destroyed that building, together with the Shalkeford, and the Theater, Saratoga, located in the Citizens National Bank building. That portion of the banking institution occupied by the banking institution was damaged only by water, of which is estimated at $20,000, with the contents of the safes and deposit vaults remain intact, and the bank will continue business this morning as usual.

Fortunately, there was no wind.
Otherwise, the fire, which was in the heart of city and not far from several of the largest hotels, might have developed into a general conflagration.
Chief Chadwick was injured in rescued from
