CORONER'S JURY BLAMES ALL IS SET FOR COMPANY FOR ACGIDENT

Verdict Declares London Electric Responsible For Death of Lineman.

A verdict, holding the London Electric Company responsible for the accident, was returned by the jury at the inquest into the death of John Christie, lineman for the company who was fatally injured by falling from a pole on Dundas street las

Tuesday morning. From evidence given by the witnesses it appears that Mr. Christie climbed the pole and then remarked that he did not think it in a safe condition. He then shook the pole, thereby causing it to sag to one side Not knowing how far the pole was going to sag, he immediately slipped his safety belt and made the leap for the new pole, which was standing about six feet away, and which resulted in his fall and subsequent

AWAITING CALL TO WAR

Hundreds in City Liable To Be Called to Arms Have Had

No Word From Consul. Although scores of Austrian reservists in London have declared their readiness to return home to fight for their homeland, none of them up to last night had received any official communication from the Austrian consulat Ottawa instructing where or when to report. There are Askin Street Methodist last night, a several hundred reservists in all in London, and they expect that they will receive some communication today.

In many local instances several mempers from one family or a number of neighbors are together volunteering for service. On York street in two adjoining homes, three reservists told The Advertiser of their intention to go to the war as soon as they hear from their consul. Decide To Adopt Agreement Drafted by General Manager Glaubitz.

The members of the local Electrical Workers' Union met last night in the Moose Hall to consider the terms submitted to them by the public utilities commission for an agreement. The wage schedule drawn up by General Manager H. J. Glaubitz and approved by the commission at its last meeting was ommission's request for a two-year agreement with it as a basis.

Some small changes in the details of he agreement terms were suggested and defying will be submitted to the commission. It s not expected that any difficulty will presented to an early agreement, however, the changes being of a minor nature and really tending only to make the sense of the agreement clearer.
