Liberal Party In London Chooses E. S. Little As Candidate

FORMER MAYOR IS UNANIMOUS CHOICE OF CITY'S GREATEST LIBERAL RALLY; COL. REASON OFFERS WHOLE SUPPORT

Represents Young Men.

Supported by Veterans.

"I have not sought a nomination in any way," he continued. He reviewed

Mr. Little was unable to be present of the convention that I be the can candidate in West Middlesex and president of the London Liberal ashe entered the hall and sociation, was given an ovation whe place on the platform. He brought greetings from West Middlesex, where he said the Liberals were these people at his back and in good cause in which he has to fight,

Will Act Quickly.

yman Hall Crowded To Doors—Accredited Delegates Come From Every Subdivision of Riding To Back Popular Candidate.

RECALLS TRIUMPHANT DAYS OF HYMAN

Meeting Shows New Support For Liberalism in London—Party Presents United Front Against Extremists.

London Liberals, in convention at said that the Conservatives were just Hyman Hall Saturday night, selected about as gloomy as the day (Friday) they placed their candidate in the field in London. He withdrew. The candidate in the federal elections on chairman announced that Dr. Steven-October 29. Only two names went to son, who was not present, had in-the convention, and on a ballot vote formed a delegation that he could not Mr. Little was declared the winner over Col Clifford Reason. Col. Reason aid he would not split the Liberal drew, as did Mr. Robson, Mr. Bucaner orces if he did not receive the nom-nation, and has announced that he liberals needed a young and ill support Mr. Little in the cam- aggressive candidate, the time was aign. His action is commended by now. "We want a candidate to whom we can look with confidence aign. His action is commended by and pride," he said, "We have a rality and unselfishness, and leaves great leader in contract with pessi-mist, Mr. Meighen. It is always blue ondon to a three-cornered contest. with Liberal, Labor and Conservative in the field.

The great turnout at the convention and the enthusiasm which greeted didate." the selection of Mr. Little as candidate demonstrated that Liberalism been since the days when Hon. Charles Hyman carried the party banner to victory. Old-timers compared the convention to the old days and could see in it a return to the Liberalism which made such a convention which made such a convention to the old days and could see in it a return to the Liberalism which made such a convention to the old days and could see in it a return to the Liberalism which made such a convention to the old days and could see in it a return to the Liberalism which made such a convention to the old days and could see in it a return to the liberalism which made such a convention to the old days and could see in it a return to the liberal banner would again float over the city. "I admit I am from the senate," said that he represented thousands of house service of the country. He was not in a position to allow his name to go before the convention to the old days and the speaker, "and that is one of the things to be reformed. If, in the opinion of the people of this country, the senate needs reform the city.

We would again float over the city.

"I admit I am from the senate," said the speaker, "and that is one of the opinion of the people of this country, the senate needs reform the country and the speaker of the country. The senate of the country the senate of the country the senate of the country that the Liberal banner to the country. delegates choose a man whose patriotism had been tested. The greatiplendid appeal to the electorate of his city years are There were 475 plendid appeal to the electrate of this city years ago. There were 475 man who could devote himself to the ccredited delegates on the list as ficial, and practically every one most necessary were youth and most necessary were youth and fidelity to country, and such a man fidelity to country, and such a man such a m ened. Besides these 300 were oute, and after the ballot came in to listen to the speeches, which, in their condemnation of the blue-ruin policies of Mr. Meighen and their support of peralism in its policy of modera-n and unity for Canada, were loudly acclaimed. Ready to Accept.

Unfortunately, Mr. Little was unable to be present, being out of the city, or he would have received a great ovation from the Liberals of London. Mr. Little sent a telegram that if chosen by the convention he was too good a Liberal not to accept. This sentiment was cheered by the huge crowd which filled all the seats and standing room in the hall. Every

ner. All retired except Mr. Little and Col. Reason. A ballot was taken and Mr. Little declared the choice.

Mr. Little starts his campaign with a united Liberal party, whose en- East, at at convention which was palent.

Mr. Little starts his campaign with a united Liberal party, whose en- East, at at convention which was incompleted as a signed asking the signed asking and deem signed asking the knowledge and permitted and united him. When the king government had reduced the tariff on implements of production and certain articles of apparel. "Does that harm anyone?" he asked. "Does making the convention which was a lattern anyone?" he asked. Mr. Little starts his campaign with a united Liberal party, whose enthusiasm and fighting spirit is more apparent than for many years. All the speakers at the convention spoke field here against all comers, but rather than have dissension in the had rendered London. The chief ranks there must only be one canmost highly of the service Mr. Little rather than have dissension in the united states had rendered London. The chief speakers, besides those nominated, who all spoke for a few minutes, were Senator F. F. Pardee of Sarnia and J. C. Elliott, K.C. Liberal ranks. The great thing is Liberalism after all.

"We should have a convention ten in the United States were suffering now from lack of work and that labor in that country wanted reduction in the tariff because they felt it was too high a tax. He pointed out that the people paid is Liberalism after all. Both men showed up the fallacy of the blue-ruin talk of Mr. Meighen and his cohorts. They showed that Canada was in a much better position now than it had been when Mr. Meighen was prime minister, and that prosperity comparable only with that which followed the election of candidate it will be a great honor to Meighen was prime minister, and iberal government in 1896 is on way. Major W. H. Kippen was Confident of Return.

Major Kippen, in opening the conwention, explained that he was a temporary chairman only. He informed the gathering that although gathering that although Hon, Chas, S. Hyman was unable to be present that he had sent greet-ings and best wishes for a Liberal success in London. "I feel confident that the King government it going to be returned to power," said Major Kippen. "Although there is no doubt about it, we must not neglect our duties through over-confidence. Londuties through over-confidence. Lon-don, by electing a Liberal, can help adorned that position. Mr. Elliott exmore that many other ridings. There were 475 cards issued to accredited delegates to this convention, and 1 that the Liberal cause is not as country," he continued. The Tories that the Liberal cause is not as country," he continued. The Tories that the Liberal cause is not as believe they are nearly all here. Thus lively as it used to be, a convention division in the city is repre-l. I think we will all work polling subdivisions represented for the candidate selected whoever he Whoever is the candidate, with all vention would support the candidate should be returned to the support getting the most votes was passed. of Mi nother resolution made Major Kip- applause. pen permanent chairman. On the declaration that the meeting was nominations, Mr. Jared Vin-placing the name of Mr. Would be able to deal quickly with ing, in placing the name of Mr. Little lefore the meeting, said that a great many problems when he had to be a great many problems when he had to be a great many problems when he had to be said that a great many problems when he had to be said that a great many problems when he had to be said that a great many problems when he had to be said that a great many problems when he had to be said that a great many problems when he had to be said that a great many problems when he had to be said that a great many problems when he had to be said that a great many problems when he had to be said that a great many problems when he had to be said that a great many problems when he had to be said that a great many problems when he had to be said that a great many problems when he had to be said that a great many problems when he had to be said that a great many problems when he had to be said that a great many problems when he had to be said that a great many problems when he had to be said that a great many problems when he had the had that a great many problems when he had the ha a man who has been prominent in the affilirs of this city for many years, said Mr. Vining. "He has demonstrated by his keen interest that he is a great public-hearted citizen He has demonstrated his ability as one who is eminently capable of looking after the affairs of this cty and also this country. His family for more than a generation less than a generation of the people. There had been no time in the history of Canada when a government had carried on so successfully under such c family for more than a generation has been prominent in all good works turned to power and settle problems in Lendon, and he is entitled to the highest respect and honor. He was twice mayor of London, and has been associated with every act for the beneft of the city. I may say that I have his assurance that if it is the desir of this convention that he be the andidate he will accept."

Then followed the nominations of Col. Clifford Reason, who, Dr. McLeal said in nominating, had done spleidid service for this country and turned to power and settle problems as Laurier did in the past years. He told the convention that although he was busy with his own fight they could depend upon him for enthusiastic support.

Dr. C. C. Ross, Liberal candidate in East Middlesex, spoke very briefly, stating that the party in his riding was putting up a splendid fight, and reminding the voters that the country needed more of a man of Mr. King's calibre than now. London, and he is entitled to the LITTLE IS CHOSEN.

Ex-Mayor E. S. Little, named Saturday night as the federal can-Monday with the Conservatives. We didate of the united Liberal forces of want to enthuse people in this campaign just as Charlie Hyman used to do, and make a hero of our candidate."

London. The Liberal rally at Hyman hall surpassed all party meetings the triumphant days of the Hon. C. S. Hyman.

didate demonstrated that Liberalism Mr. Stirrett, in a vigorous speech, time, but this convention was an stoday a greater force than it has said that he represented thousands of indication that the Liberal banner Mr. King gets a mandate to reform the senate, then I be behind him. (applause).

The Siege of Meighen.

Senator Pardee said the Tory speeches were full of misery and delefulness. They were crying that could carry the Liberal banner to victory in London. Col. Reason, who was given a good reception, said that the city of Loylon was out of the infant class, and should have two members in the louse of commons. If Mr. White house of commons. If Mr. White had been on his job, London would have had two members, he declared.

After giving a quantitien to the second of the common when they are left of nowners. out of power everything is wrong. Premier King has done well by the After giving a quotation to the effect that the past made the present, and the present the future, Col. Reason asked "Who is to pave the way for the future?" There were two great parties ready, and of these the Liberals had the better record. country and the Liberal party. No with a majority of one and an adverse senate. The government is not infallible, but a government that makes no mistakes is doing nothing."
Regarding the tariff, Senator and standing room in the hall. Every section of the city and every class of its people were represented.

Plenty of Material.

Nine names were placed the convention, as follows: E. S. Little, Col. Clifford Reason, James Gray, Andrew Robson, Dr. W. J. Stevenson, C. R. Somerville, Jared Vining, J. R. Stirrett and U. A. Buchner. All retired except Mr. Little and Col. Reason, A halls, in the semen had nominated him. When the Liberals had come into power in 1896 the Tories had predicted ruin, and they were doing the same today. "They said everybody would be out of work, the children crying, and the women weeping. Nobody wept."

A voice—"Only Mr. Meighen."

The King government had reduced. Pardee said that the absolute truth is Liberal fands. The great tames is Liberalism after all.

"We should have a convention ten times as big as this, and this is a splendid convention. We should give everybody an opportunity so that cliff. Person or appropriese cannot everybody an opportunity so that Cliff Reason or anyone else cannot the people. That is a Liberal principal to the conservative party, sine, was yelling for higher taxation on one that the people. That is a Liberal principal to the conservative party, sine, was yelling for higher taxation into the form of a higher taxiff on the other. ax, and yet the Conservative party, Senator Pardee congratulated Mr but the chairman read the following telegram from him: "If it is the wish Little, and said that the time had come to bury all differences and to work for the Liberal nominee for the benefit of London, and hence for dominion of Canada. Mr. Pardee mentioned that a tariff board was to be appointed and stated that of all was so willing to listen to the voice of the people as Mr King Reduce Per Capita Debt

The speaker said that most of the Canadian expenditure could not be much helped as it was the cost of the "When we have honest debts would be well advised to have faith in themselves and the country and not to whine. We are paying our per capita debt from $55 to $31. They have taken $3,000,000 off indirect taxation and three-quarters of a mil off the cost of civil service.

anybody say we are standing still?

"The Conservative party, for reasons only known to itself, is down the best systems in the world, and countries? there is little reason to whine. The government has to give the railways ing up, but we must seek even wider money. What would the people say markets for our surplus of products." to a government that would stop the generally disrupt the service? railway is so good that it is advertising itself, and some day not so far

FOR $600.000

Heard by Lusitania

More than 20 claims against Germany for damages amounting to $600,000 arising out of submarine particularly sweet. There are few warfare and damage to property in matters of a contentious nature to sicknesses suffered by London public the battlefields of France and Belgium, advanced by residents of Western Ontario, were heard Saturday sible flare-up over cadet maticrs. and this morning by members of the routine business only is scheduled for Lusitania commission in session at the attention of the aldermen and the the Belvedere hotel. mayor.

The commission completed its work in London today and left for Windsor prove of sending a bylaw to the where a number of claims are to be presented. Fourteen claims were the citizens whether or not they are heard in London Saturday, and the in favor of cadet training in the emaining half dozen today.

GERMANY SUED

The majority of claims presented Labor on the council namely, Alder-locally were for damages suffered in the sinking of the Lusitania and Hesperian in 1915 by a Commun Libert perian in 1915 by a German U-boat, and two for property damage in Bel- cadet training and they feel sure that ern Life Assurance Company and the opposed stituted the greater amount of the $600,000

After the hearing of evidence account forwarded to Germany, according to Major Spencer Ralph, one ording to Major Spencer Ralph, one "Betting on what will happen at a "Betting on what will happen at a than likely the total amount will be paid over within a few years, he de-

Divisions in Membership Drive.

The divisional leaders of the boy the are to take a leading part in the Y. M. C. A. drive for new members have been chosen. The workers are campaigning under Marquis of other man could have done as well Queensberry rules, which gives the with a majority of one and an battle for new blood something of a adverse senter. pugilistic atmosphere.

The division leaders are Bill Baldieaders of the feather and flyweights fident that Mr. Little will lead the if the red division.

The heads of the blue division are Vic Wong and A. McNaughton.
The captains who have been signed ip are: M. Brady, M. Burns, Harold Dyson, Alex. Knox, Frank Kennedy, Ben, Baldwin, W. Christianson, Jack Fletcher, B. Foot, Dan Hungerford, Paul Christianson B Cottle Jones, Ross McNaughton, Ben Hig-gins, Jack Burrows, Gordon Harley Jack Millman, Jack Mitchell, Jack

P.U.C. Orchard Feeds Orphans

In accordance with a custom of some years the London public utilities commission has distrib-uted amongst the several charitable institutions of the city the apples from the commission or chard at Springbank park.

This year more than 50 bags were distributed pro rata amongst the following institutions: Children's Aid Home, Protestant Orphans' Home, Ronald Gray Home and the Mount St. Joseph Orphanage. The apple crop was a fair one in the commission orchard, which nestles on the hillside to the rear of the park zoological gardens.

1925 FISHERMEN'S RACE CALLED OFF BY TRUSTEES

issued here last night on behalf of the trustees of the international

The champion schooner the Blue nose, it was stated, has completed her fishing season, has been laid up, and according to her managing ow ers it would be impossible to get in shape to race this year. The Haligonian, a likely contender, has gone to the Banks again and is not pected to return to her home port until November or December than one billion, and the sales ove purchases from other countries had now the National Railways is one of the rest if we cannot sell it to other

"The home market is worth build-Mr. Pardee stated railways from advertising, would let ada's inward immigration was greater the roadbeds go into disrepair and than the number going out, and that The the immigration policy "The wave of prosperity of 1896 is coming back. We must have faith away the people will have a paying in the country. Never mind the blue-investment. The Liberal government ruin cry for political purposes. If Col. Clifford Reason, who, Dr. McLeal said in nominating, had done blead in nominating, had done spleadid service for this country and city Andrew Robson, Dr. W. J. Steenson, C. R. Somerville, U. A. Budner, Jared Vining, John Ross Stirett and James Gray.

Mr. Vining, in retiring, again mentioned the qualifications of Mr. Liberals hadn't held London for some Little for the honor. Mr. Somerville

CADET TRAINING BEFORE COUNCIL

Claims of District Residents Are Will Tonight Consider Sending Bylaw Before Voters of London.

> The city council session tonight promises to be short, even if it isn't city's interests, and outside of a pos-

The council will be asked to appeople at the next election, asking

The aldermanic representatives of tives of Labor, they are opposed to the great majority of citizens are also On the other hand, a great many people believe that cadet training teaches youngsters to be more manly and gives them good training in disrore than 1,000 cases throughout cipline and a proper respect for law different classes during the month. There may be a whole the Dominion government and an lot of informative discussion by the aldermen and then again there may > council meeting is just about as hard council meeting is just about as naru as picking winners at the race track," declared one alderman this morning. "We may think we know what will happen, and then find out later on that we didn't know a darn thing about it."

>
> In connection with the discussion

In connection with the discussion on cadet training, Col. G. H. Gillespie will present a request for a grant of $50 for prizes in connection with

Captains Named For Various POLITICAL SITUATION

Continued From Page One "There is no room for pessimism in o the last man, will throw his weight behind Mr. Little."

Stevenson Sees Win London party to a signal victory. He believes that the Liberals of London are today displaying all the solidarity and ardor which made this riding one of the strongholds of Western Ontario in the old days, and declares that the time is ripe for a Liberal candidate to again swing into the front in the city riding.

"Mr. Little has the backing of the "Mr. Little has the backing of the entire party," Dr. Stevenson pointed out, "and my belief is that he will he unable to attend the convention on Saturday night but I was called out of town and my absence was unavoidable. Everyone tells me that it was the best convention London Liberals have ever held."

James Gray apother. The home mission board was read, after which the following officers were elected for the coming parative bridge costs for a new structure at Risout street given by City Engineer Near to the city councillering. Cleaned—Glenrig Clean James Gray another nominee, was enthusiastic over the manner in which London Liberals had voiced their undivided support for Mr. Little. Best Convention Yet.

"The convention was the best I attended," he asserted. "The spirit of London Liberals is remarkable, and if it burns with the fervor of Saturday night Mr. Little will lead the local forces to a splendid victory. "The King government, famed for its support of all the people without exception, will be be returned with added laurels. I am positive. U. A. Buchner, whose name was also placed in nomination but who withdrew, said: "The convention was very enthusiastic and augurs well for the success of the Liberal party in London. Personally I am very confident of a Liberal victory and I believe that Mr. Little will be the next representative for this city in the house of commons."

Vining Delighted. Associated P ess Despatch.
Halifax, N.S., Oct. 5.—There will be no international fishermen's race this year, according to a statement. "I am delighted with the size and enthusiasm of the convention and I am also delighted with the candi-date. I fully believe that if the party generally displays the enthusiasm which marked the convention Saturday night that Mr. Little will be the We have a first-class canvictor. We have a first-class candidate, thoroughly capable of representing the people at Ottawa because of his manufacturing and business interests both here and in Winnipeg. He would become a leading man it parliament

A Worthy Candidate. "The best of feeling prevailed at the Saturday night convention which chose E. S. Little as standard-bearer," was the assertion from C. R. Somerville, "Mr. Little is a man who has done splendid work in the city and he will make a worthy mem. city and he will make a worthy mem. ber in the next parliament. The city needs a man who will be in harmony with the government and there is n question of the present government not being returned.

"London should have a representative with some influence at Ottawa and if the Liberals united will set minds to this, then Mr. Little

There is no doubt of the fact that Liberals of this city are Mr. Little as one enthusiastic unit, Andrew Robson stated "As an exemplification of strength and hones sincerity of London Liberalism, the convention on Saturday night was without an exception in the enthusiasm it was the best I have ever seen.

BURT RETURNS HOME. V. A. Burt, president of the local ommand of the Amputations' Association of the War, has returned from the Winnipeg convention of "Fragments from France."

Whooping Cough Supplants Mumps As Prevailing Malady

None of City School Children
Afflicted With the Measles.

3,452 EXAMINED

Mumps, the recognized leader, gave way to whooping cough among the come before the watchdogs of the school children during the past month. Miss Blanche Rowe, supervisor of nurses, reported that there were thirteen cases of whooping cough, as compared with only one ase of mumps.

There was not a single case of measles, while other diseases were listed as follows: Scarlet fever 2. diphtheria 5, chickenpox 6, miscel-laneous 22. The staff made 203 visits to the schools during the month, exmining 3,452 children, finding defects, and terminating 375 defects, in addition to making 66 home visits. E. W. Fuller, chief dental officer, reported a total of 301 operations; new cases, 228, and completed cases, 213. Of the 327 children examined at Riverview school, 167 were found to have defective teeth, while 356 children were found to have defective teeth among the 542 examined a

E. W. G. Quantz, supervisor music, reported giving 150 lessons to different classes during the month ers.

Geo. Cowie, chief manual training instructor, reported a total enroll-ment of 1,363 pupils in manual train

City Churches

ST. ANDREW'S Y. P. F.

The first meeting of the Young People's Federation of St. Andrew's Inited church took place last night with Dr. MacGregor presiding. new slate of officers was completed, and the following were elected: President, Cameron Wilson; first vice-president, Ruth Lawson; second viceadian dollar is back to par, and that general trade is extremely satisfactory, points to the achievements of the Liberal government. resentative for each class. An inter-esting talk was given by Dr. Mac-London. The Liberal party was never more solid and each adherent, the executive. Miss Vivian Ferguevening.

ADELAIDE STREET M. C.

A large number turned out to the annual meeting of the Women's Mission Circle of Adelaide Street Bap-tist church recently. Mrs. J. Baldwin, presided, and pleasing and en couraging reports from different missionary societies of the church were read, the sum of $798.80 being raised for missionary work in for-eign fields. During the afternoon, Mrs. J. H. Slimon sang a pleasing secretary, Miss Grace Pickett; assist ant secretary, Mrs. F. C. Pierce; corresponding secretary, Miss M. Har wood: treasurer for home missions Mrs. F. J. Reid; treasurer for foreign missions, Mrs. A. E. Pierce; agent for the Link, Mrs. E. Noel; agent for visitors. Mrs. Fairbirn: treasurer and Mrs. J. Day: pianist, Mrs. E. Sage; assistant pianist, Mrs. J. Day; representatives, Miss Pickett and

VEN. ARCHDEACON G. B. SAGE ONE OF EXETER SPEAKERS

Ven. Archdeacon G. B. Sage, D.D., St. George's Anglican church, will be one of the speakers at the regular fall meeting of the deanery of Huron, which will be held in Trivitt Memorand afternoon.
Dr. Sage will speak on "Moral Problems Confronting the Church," while R. E. Davis, also of London, lay secretary of Huron synod will dis-cuss the question "Are We Doing Rev. S. S. Hardy, M.A., rector of St. George's church, Goderich, rural dean, wi preside at the meeting.

THOMAS McMULLEN INTERRED. Funeral services for Thomas D. McMullen, who died on Friday were held at the George E. Logan funeral home this afternoon. Rev. Mr. Charlton had charge of the services at which many London Masons attend-Interment was made at Mount of Bracebridge, who has been chosen as Conservative candidate for the riding of Muskoka-Ontario, where he will be opposed by R. H. Halbert,

ENROLL IN COURSE

Extra-Mural Workers Swell Number at Western to Nearly 900.

Seventy students have now regisered in the extra-mural courses of these courses at Western.

This increases the number of registrations at the university to nearly 900 students enrolled for this year. Although tomorrow is the last official day for registration it is expected that a few more latecomers will be admitted to the college of arts. There is a possibility that the total number may reach the 900 mark. At the present rate of increase it means that next fall Westen will see ,the enrollments go over the thousand mark. The increase this year has been considerably over one hundred. The official records of the registration will be issued by Dr. K. P. R. Neville, M.A., F.A.G.S., registrar in a

BRIDGE TO COST LESS

Cost of Materials Has De- ert Buck, 8 p.m.; Glenorvie, 10 a.m.; creased Considerably

There will be no report on comparative bridge costs for a new Glencorrie, 9 a.m.; Keybar, 6 a.m.; Glenfarn, 10 a.m.;

was sent to the people for a decision it was defeated. Since that time conditions have changed. Materials Kenewick, 11:15 p.m.; McPherson, have decreased in price some 10 to 15 per cent, and this will mean a large saving to the public's pocketlarge saving to the public's pocket-

HUNDREDS OF VOLUNTEERS SEARCHING FOR AIRMAN

Bellefont, Pa., Oct. 5.—The search for Charles H. Ames, air mail pilot, ial church, Exeter, tomorrow morning who was lost Thursday night while regular flight from New York Up: Harvard, Cornell, 11:30 a.m.; to Chicago was resumed today by the eleven army and mail planes

Grand Watson, Peter White, 12:30 p.m.;

Bessemer, 1 p.m.—Wickwire, 1:30 which for three days had been scouting over the mountains between Hartleton and Kennerdell.

Hundreds of volunteers, on foot, in automobiles and on horseback are searching the roads and woods.

Hundreds of volunteers, on foot, in automobiles and on horseback are searching the roads and woods.

> OTHER STATES WILL JOIN FIGHT AGAINST DIVERSION p.m.; Zenith City, Troxel, 3 p.m.; Keewatin, Fulton, 4 p.m.; Fayette

Associated Press Despatch.
Washington, D. C., Oct. 5.—Minne-Brown, 5:30 sota, Ohio and Pennsylvania asked against the diversion of water by the King, Fort William, wheat

London To Rub Elbows With Big Cities In Film

Will Be Only Canadian Municipality Advertised at Convention.

CAMPAIGN SHOWN

London is to have some unique adchamber of commerce will appear in a moving picture at a convention of chamber of commerce managers in Kansas City.

nerce officers and executives at versity, Evanston, Ill.

The pictures to be sent from London embrace an exterior view of the chamber of commerce building, inter-for view of the general office, with banez, former minister of Major W. H. Wood, secretary, John S. Moore and Clarence R. May, directors, sitting at the table, and a view of "the community building and calm prevails. vertising the latter part of this month when scenes of the local hotel bylaws.

What is perhaps more noteworthy is the fact that London is the only Canadian city to be included in the movie, which will picture chamber of the many men Mr. Wood met durange to the commerce at Waynesboto, Penn., one of the many men Mr. Wood met durange to the committee of each of the departments will submit a report. Howard obeay will be in charge. Supper

CHURCH COUNCILS TO BECOME ONE

Former Presbyterian and Methodist Bodies Will Be Merged Thursday.

Ministers and laymen of the United hurch of London will hold a getgether banquet at Beecher church formerly First Congregational church, on Thursday evening at 6:30 o'clock

The gathering, which will include pastors and representative laymen to the number of upwards of 100, will embrace the former Methodist an Presbyterian councils. William Heaman and John Elliott were president and secretary, respectively, of the Methodist council, while Rev. W. R. McIntosh, D.D. and John Stuart were president and secretary of the Presbyterian council

Thursday night's meeting will be of the old organizations, them into one, election of officers and outlining the work for the coming

Rev. A. E. M. Thomson, M.A., B.D., Calvary church, president of the London United church conference, is expected to preside at the banquet.

HEARING OF APPEALS TO BEGIN THURSDAY

Revising Officers Will Have Offices in County Court House.

Oct. 8 to 14, inclusive, are the dates the University of Western Ontario, set by the revising officers for the according to Dr. H. R. Kingston, M. electoral district of London, to hear A., F.R.A.S., who is in charge of appeals to have names placed on the voters' list. The two London officials, E. W. Flock and F. Gladman, will have their offices in the court

The hours set are 10 in the morn-Miss Harrison, revising officer for East Middlesex, also is expected to have her office in the county build-

Vessel Passages

PORT DALHOUSIE.

Port Dalhousie, Oct. 3 .-- Up: Glenfain, Robinson, McPherson, Gram-mar, Kenefick, Holloway, Oakton, Baird, Turret Court, Trevisa, Fields, Thom, Cedarbay. Down: Poplar Bay, Elmbay, Birchton, Nesbitt, Easton, Glenorvie.

PORT COLBORNE. Glengarnock, 11:20 a.m. – Keybar, 11:30 p.m.; Royalite, 2:30 p.m.; Glen-farn, 3:15 p.m.; Keynor, 3:40; Glen-cil tonight.

Up: Glengarnock, 8 p.m.; Ben-Cleared-Glenrig, Glenbogi

Mr. Near has a report ready on the cost of two types of steel bridges, but figures on the cost of a reinforced concrete structure are not yet completed and consequently are not available for the council.

Five years ago estimates were prepared on the cost of a new Ridout street bridge and when the matter was sent to the people for a decision

En route: Gleniffer.

Port Colborne, Oct. 4.—Up: Judge Kenewick, 7:35 p.m.; J. Holloway, 7:46 p.m.; Cakton, 7:45 p.m.; F. B. Baird, 8:30 p.m.; Turretcourt, 3:15 p.m.; Trevisa, 3:30 a.m.; John Shaw, 10 a.m.; Cedarbay, 11 a.m.; Robert Thompson, 11:45 a.m.; Steel Vender, 2 a.m.; Wiarton, 3 a.m.; Wiarton, 3 a.m.; John Gehm, 6:15 p.m.; Wotan, 6 p.m.

:45 p.m.; Beechbay, 5:45 p.m.; A. C. Field, 6 p.m. Cleared: C Collier, Martian.

Arrived: Royalton, Revnolds

a.m.; Saskatoen, 2 p.m.; Cedarbay, 2:25 p.m.; F. B. Baird, 3:15 p.m.;

SAULT STE MARIE Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., Oct. 3 .-

sing, Queen, 10 a.m.; M. A. Bradley, Butler, 11 a.m.; Truesdale, 12:30 p.m.; Kerr, Wilpen, 1:30 p.m.; Reiss, 2 p.m.; Edenborn, Berwind, 2:30

GODERICH. sota Ohio and Pennsylvania asked the supreme court today for permission to join Wisconsin in its fight Franz. Fort William, wheat; Midland Cleared: J. Frater Taylor, Fort, William, light; Home Smith, Fort William, light

SELECTION OF LARRAIN BRINGS CALM TO CHILE

the larger United States cities, such as Atlanta, Columbus, Pittsburg, Indianapolis, Boston and Chicago.

The pictures to be sent for choice of Emiliano Figueroa Larrain as candidate for president to succeed libanez, former minister of war, has withdrawn his candidacy.

General satisfaction is expressed that the political crisis has passed

"Y." TO HEAR REPORTS. hotel bylaws.

The material for the picture, which will be shown before the conference numbering 1.500 or more delegates, is being gathered together by Alfred Chilton, secretary of the chamber of commerce at Waynesboro Penn one will be served.