STRENGTH OF MEN AND WOMEN.

In Paris a well known anthropologist has recently carried out a series of experiments—by means of a specially devised instrument—which go to show clearly the comparative strength of the two sexes of humanity. On this strength testing instrument the palm of the hand is placed, and then the greatest downward pressure which the individual can give is exercised upon it, and the force thus produced is recorded by the usual clockwork device.

Fifty robust men, and the same number of healthy women, both belonging to the middle class in society, with ages varying from 25 to 45 years, were tested in this way by the Paris scientists with the following results: The strongest man of the right hand was able to produce with his right hand a pressure equivalent to 85 kilogrammes

(a kilogramme is raised more than two pounds), and the weakest to 40 kilogrammes, the average being 56 kilogrammes.

Between the strength of the right and left hand in man there was shown to be on an average a difference of 40 kilogrammes, the former, of course, being the most powerful in every case. One curious result was arrived at—the short men were all very nearly as strong as the tall men, the average difference between equal groups of the two sizes being 3 kilogrammes. The force of the strongest woman of the 53 who were selected amounted only to 44 kilogrammes, and that of the weakest to 16 kilogrammes, while the average was 33 kilogrammes. The average difference of the power of the right hand over the left in the women amounted to 51-10 kilogrammes.

The Only Pure

(From Hall's Journal of Health.)

We feel it our duty to state that of a number of different kinds of Baking Powder purchased in a neighboring city for examination, the only one we found made of Pure Grape Cream of Tartar, and that did not contain any

Alum, Acid Phosphates, or Ammonia, and that was absolutely free from adulterations, was

LOCAL AND DISTRICT.

Mr. Pearen, Science Master at the Norwich High School, has resigned and goes to Toronto to attend the University.

Rev. W. H. Porter, of this city, will preach in the William Street Baptist Church at Chatham on Sunday, at both services.

Brooke and Eniskillen are at war over the Burns drain, and the matter is to be decided by Messrs. Shirley, Fleck and Lowrie.

Messrs. McKellar Bros., of Alvinston, have completed the bridge over the Syden-ham, at the 9th con., Brooke. The price was $1,690.

Word was received at Parkhill that Mr.

Robert Hey was lying at the point of death with some fever, near Rapid City, Man.

Mr. Hey formerly lived in McGillivray, and has been in Manitoba about four years.

At Zurich a day or two ago one of Kasper Weber's little boys was helping him on a scaffold carrying bricks when he missed his footing and fell to the ground, striking his head on a stump. He sustained very serious injuries about the head and had his arm broken. Medical aid was summoned and the little fellow is doing as well as can be expected.

On Tuesday there was recorded in the Register of Deeds Office for St. Clair county, in Port Huron, the largest mortgage ever given in that part of Michigan. It was executed by the St. Clair Tunnel

Company to E. W. McLaughlin and Lewis

J. Sargent, trustees, and was for the purpose of issuing bonds to the amount of $2,500,000. These are to be used by the Tunnel Company, and will run for fifty years at 5 per cent. interest. It is stated that the money will be expended in building engine houses, shops, etc., but it is generally believed the main object is to raise money for the construction of a second tunnel at that point.

During the progress of the band concert on Victoria Park on Wednesday evening

Bandmaster Hiscott was approached by a deputation, consisting of one small boy, aged about seven years, who requested, on behalf of a large number of industrial citizens, that the band play "Annie Rooney" once more "by request." Mr. Hiscott, in reply, stated that "Annie" was at present taking a much-needed rest, having returned to her home in Hamilton, where, as she appears to be in declining health, she will probably be decently interred before very long.

Wednesday night's programme was a splendid one, the selection of sacred meloids and the waltz, "Waves of the Danube" being particularly admired. The crowd was of the usual dimensions.

A few days since Miss A. Shaw Wood, of London township, was the recipient of a kindly worded address from the Church Wardens of the Church of Hosanna at Hyde Park. The address read as follows:

"Miss A. Shaw Wood—We, the undersigned Wardens of the Church of Hosanna, desire on behalf of the congregation to express to you their gratification and heartfelt thanks for the warm interest taken and work you and yours have done for our church, namely, the beautiful hangings for the reading desk,

Communion table, etc. And we, as well as the church wardens, most heartily appreciate and endorse the same feeling, and that the good work you have been doing will in the end obtain its reward, and wishing you every happiness." Miss A.

B. Wood made a suitable reply.

The Toronto Globe says:—"Mr. Paul

Peel, the Canadian artist, whose picture, "After the Bath," secured such distinguished recognition in the Paris Salon, was in town yesterday, and in a few moments of pleasant conversation he informed a Globe representative that his present stay in Canada would be short, as he was arranging to take a further course of study in Spain. Although Mr. Peel has been residing in Paris for ten years and was married there he has not lost his love for his old home. His father and mother reside in London, Ont., and the illness of the latter was the chief motive of his visit just now. Mr. Peel hopes to take up his permanent residence here in a year or so, and as Mrs. Peel also is an artist of considerable standing they will be a welcome addition to social and artistic circles. Before returning to Paris Mr. Peel will superintend an exhibition of his pictures, which will be given in this city in October.

During his brief stay in the city Mr. Peel received attentions from several distinguished Torontonians.

In the suit of Peuchen vs. City Mutual Fire Insurance Co., which was an action upon an insurance policy for $1,000 against damage by fire to a stock of goods in the plaintiff's paint factory in Princess street, Toronto, the learned judge (Falcon-bridge) holds that the sale or assignment by one member of a firm to another does not void a policy, the insurance being on partnership property and the changes in the partnership not appearing to have affected or to have been material to the risk.

Leave given to the plaintiffs to add the names of all or any of the different concerns and of the members thereof as parties or to amend the pleadings by claiming as trustee or otherwise. Judgment to be entered on and after the second day of the next sittings of the Divisional Court for the plaintiffs for $1,000, with interest and costs. Osler, Q. C., for the plaintiffs.

Gibbons, Q. C., for the defendants.

Five small boys were brought before Squire Wells, at Parkhill, the other day, on a charge of trespassing on the G. T. R.

property, preferred by Mr. W. M. Thompson, agent. On the Sunday previous they were engaged in pushing an empty car back and forth with some of them on top playing brakeman, while others were trying to couple to an adjacent car. The wonder is that some of them did not get injured at their hazardous play.

The Police Magistrate sentenced them to twenty-four hours' imprisonment, with sentence suspended contingent on future good conduct.

The Parkhill Review says:—"County

Crown Attorney Hutchinson has given instructions to have Richard Mortimer, the foreman at the repairs at Spring Creek bridge, at the time the accident occurred, arrested for manslaughter. Constable Maes went to Stratford last Tuesday to execute a warrant for Mortimer's arrest, but he had left that place on the previous day, and his whereabouts are now unknown. It is reported that the G. T. R. company has dismissed him from its service.

Victoria (B.C.) Times:—"T. J. Murphy, of London, Ont., arrived in the city from Vancouver via Nanaimo to-day. He has been taking in the sights along the C. P.

R. since the first of April, and is very well pleased with his trip. A very interesting time was spent by Mr. Murphy among the Indians east of the Rockies, and after he has been in Victoria he intends to write up British Columbia and the C. P. R. for eastern papers.
