HOUSE OF COMMONS.

This was a very uninteresting day in the Commons, being private members' day, and devoted to disposing of a great many affairs of minor importance.

THE GOVERNMENT POLICY. with, Mr. Laurier said he had to inform the leader of the House that it was expected to-morrow, or as soon as convenient, some statement should be made as to the policy of the new Government.

Sir Hector Langevin said he would be in a position to-morrow to make such a state-THE BUDGET.

In answer to Sir R. Cartwright, Hon. Mr. Foster said the budget would be delivered on Tuesday next.

Mr. Wood (Brockville) moved the second reading of the Bill to amend the Dominion Election Act, so as to disinfranchise persons having become United States citizens, or having made declaration of their intention of becoming so.

The Bill was, after discussion, read a second time and referred to a special com-
