lowed by the flocks of carrion crows and the parish dogs, and the field guns were moved to the plain beyond to batter the way into the city of Liaoyang, I met the remnant of the regiment, marching out of the hill. I will not forget that scene.

The pathway was through a lane of dead, but the regiment was singing a gay marching song. Before it a betto led a riderless horse and carried a broken sword; he was the major's servant. Behind the led horse was a litter of branches, raised high on the
