Policy Changes to Suit Various Localities in Which He Speaks

"I have been keeping a record of Mr. Baxter's statements in connection with the Grand Falls proposition since he has become leader of the Opposition," said Premier Veniot at Gagetown, "and I find that he now has to his credit five different shifts, as follows:

Firstly—At the convention in Saint John he declared himself in favor of Grand Falls developments and threatened to cancel any contracts that would be made before the question was submitted to the people, but he would not commit his party to either private or government ownership.

Secondly—At the convention in York county he declared himself in favor of the development, providing it could be carried on with a reasonable profit, but would not say if this should be for the province or a private company. This time he forgot the threat to cancel the contracts that he might let.

Thirdly—At the convention in Sunbury county he said: "The province cannot meet its obligations in connection with the Valley Railway, why therefore, rush into this huge expenditure." This must be taken as committing his party to the policy of not going on with the work until the province could take care of the Valley Railway obligations.

Fourthly—At the Madawaska convention, where the people are crying aloud for the immediate development he took an entirely different attitude.
Here he told his followers that he wanted time to investigate more thoroughly the whole proposition, and he assured them that the proposition would not be pigeon-holed and that he would not cause a greater delay than three or four months.

Fifthly—His claim that there was not sufficient market for the energy that would be developed, is knocked to atoms by his admission in the House of Commons, when he was speaking on the question of exportation of electrical energy, that every ounce of the Grand Falls energy would be needed for New Brunswick.

"I am wondering what will be his next shift. He is certainly becoming an adept at side-stepping. His frequent change of front on this question looks very much as if the doughty colonel were practicing to become a political contortionist. I know he has somewhat of a political croak, but could never imagine that at his age he would think of becoming a contortionist.

Golden Wedding Anniversary

On Monday evening July 13th, the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Fallow (James) was the scene of a happy gathering in honor of the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage. Mr. and Mrs. Fallow (nee Miss Janet Campbell) are life-long residents of New Richmond. They are the descendants of Scotch parents who were among the early pioneers. Mr. Fallow has reached the ripe age of seventy-six years, while Mrs. Fallow is only three years his junior. They are highly respected citizens, always interested and helpful in every good work. Mr.
Fallow has been a worthy elder in the Presbyterian Congregation for over forty years, and by his regular attendance at public worship has been an example to many.

One of his brothers, J. Thompson Fallow presented the honoured couple with a purse of fifty dollars ($50) expressing his pleasure at being present, and wishing them many years of health and happiness. Mr. Fallow responded in a few well chosen words remarking how glad he was to see them all around him again and thanked them for their good wishes.

Polling Day Monday, Aug. 10 Nomination Day Monday, Aug. 3

New Ministers are Sworn in and Hydro Commission Reorganized with Premier Veniot as Chairman.

Fredericton, July 18.—The provincial elections in New Brunswick will be held on Monday, August 10th.
That date was set for polling at the special meeting of the Provincial Government here Friday afternoon. Nomination Day will be a week earlier—Monday, August 3rd.

Premier Veniot completed his Cabinet before ordering the election writs issued by calling Hon. Allison A. Dysart, of Beauséjour, Speaker of the Legislature and member for Kent, to the portfolio of Minister of Lands and Mines, and Burton M. Hill, Chief Highways Engineer, to the portfolio of Minister of Public Works. Mr. Hill has already been nominated in Charlotte County, where he will head the Government ticket. Both of the new Ministers were sworn in yesterday afternoon before Lieutenant Governor Todd, and then took their seats at the executive council.

The re-organized Hydro Board.— An order-in-council was passed appointing the reorganized New Brunswick Electric Power Commission, in accordance with an Act passed at the last session of the Legislature. The commission is increased from three to seven members, divided into executive and advisory sections, with Premier Veniot, who has retired from the portfolio of Minister of Public Works, as Chairman of the Commission.

The complete personnel of the Commission follows:—
Executive Section—Premier Veniot, Hon. Dr. E. A. Smith, Shediac; James Burgess, ex-M. L. A. Grand Falls.

Advisory Section—Hon. W. E. Foster, L. D. St. John; Hon. J. E.
Michael, Edmundston; A. Chase Farrell, Sackville; Elwood Burt, Fredericton.

Five were present with their husband and wife; viz: Mr. and Mrs.
Stevens McWhirer of New Richmond, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fallow of New Richmond, Mrs. Dalton of Winnipeg, Man. Mr. and Mrs. Evelyn Fallow of New Richmond, Mr. David Fallow who lives at home, another son Allan was unavoidably absent. Of the ten grand-children nine were present.

Other guests were: Mr. and Mrs.
Robert Fairweather; Mr. and Mrs. J.
Thompson Fallow, and Mrs. Andrew McColm. Of the guests who had been present at the marriage fifty years before Mr. J. Thompson Fallow and Mrs. Andrew McColm are the only ones alive. They had officiated as groomsman and bride's maid.

A pretty feature was the dancing of the Highland Fling by their granddaughters, Miss Ada Fallow of Winnipeg, Man., while Mr. J. Thompson Fallow supplied the music on the violin.

There are so few of the older residents left in New Richmond, and their passing is so keenly felt, that it was a pleasure to see so many of them passing in so kindly a way.

It was a pleasure to record an event so pleasing as this happy family reunion. Many will wish for this estimable couple many happy days who now in the autumn of life they can look back upon well spent, industrious lives lived in the face of God.

A Fredericton exchange says:
"There appears to be a very strong feeling developing to the effect that the good old County of York is going to sail back to the Liberal fold at the pending election."

That sounds good. Work will be in line with Westmorland.

Hon. Walter E. Foster is a former Premier of the Province. He inaugurated the present hydro policy in 1920 and has been styled "the father of hydro in New Brunswick."

Hon. Dr. Smith, a former Minister of Lands and Mines, was chairman of the former Hydro Commission since its inception and Hon. J. E. Michael, a member of the Government without portfolio, has also been a member of the former Commission and took an active part in the international and interprovincial negotiations which preceded the obtaining of the necessary order from the International Joint Waterways Commission to proceed with the development of Grand Falls.

A Chase Fawcett is a prominent farmer and was the leader of the Progressive group in the Legislature which has just been dissolved; he led practically the solid Progressive group in favor of the Government's policy for the development of Grand Falls as a public ownership proposition at the last session. James Burgess, who was a member of the Legislature some years ago, has been one of the leading business men of the town of Grand Falls, as well as a successful lumberman. Elwood Burt is a successful lumberman, operating several mills in Central New Brunswick and on the North Shore.

The reorganized Hydro Commission will have their first meeting under the chairmanship of Premier Veniot at St.
John next Tuesday afternoon. One of their first acts will be to award the initial contracts in connection with the development of Grand Falls on the St. John river, tenders for the spur line railway which will run to the North Shore.

Leader Baxter has made some recent statements during the past few weeks but he has not had the courage to charge that the proposals put forward by the government for the development is an election dodge.

Leader Baxter is having his own troubles. Mr. M. H. Poirier one of his "strong" candidates nominated in Gloucester, has contracted cold feet and dropped out of the race.

Either Veniot or Baxter is going to harness the Grand Falls. Veniot promises it will be run by the people.
Baxter has made no such promise.
Behind Veniot are all who want public control of the enterprise. Behind Baxter are all who want to get control of the enterprise.

A clean record.
Good roads.
Cheap power.

This is the case aushman-dish Sattismalike administration.
This is the appeal which the Veniot Government makes to the Province.

The citizens may take a closer look between this and the appeal which is made by a band of crafters who once defamed the name of the Province.

Just try to imagine what would happen if the "old gang" who plundered from this Province were once to get their grip upon a great work like Hydro Development at Grand Falls. In large attendance at the Provincial showing of the building of the Valley Railroad the high esteem in which the development almost walked off with the steel conceal was held.

One of the great canvasses in the recent Nova Scotia election was that the Liberal Government in New Brunswick had given an Audit Act to the province and provided roads which were to its credit. The tribute of the Conservative Party of a sister independent vote in New Brunswick.

SCHOOL BOOKS DISTRIBUTION

Many Shipments Have Already Been Made and Others
Going Forward

Fredericton, July 20.—In the distribution of free school books from the School Department here in pursuance of the policy of the Veniot Government, applications have been received from some five hundred of the fourteen hundred school districts of the Province. Three hundred shipments have been made and the department would have to work factoring the remainder of the district would send in their applications.

The new books are in the photo; the book goes up to and including Grade V. Grade V. However is in effect only in the town schools. The rural districts are classified in two classes: extra the same work as the city schools.
In the rural school the first class are furnished up to and including Standard III.

Fifty Thousand Pupils.
Approximately fifty thousand pupils are to be supplied with books of whom twenty thousand in rural schools. With applications coming in more rapidly the work could be speeded up.

What a carnival of graft we would have if they controlled Grand Falls development. The most loyal conservative would have fears in such a case. Let the independent electors give their rebuke to these notable gentlemen who seek to regain power.
Vote the straight Liberal ticket in.

OBITUARY

Mrs. John A. Johnston

On July 10th, there occurred at Oak Bay Mills, P. Q. the death of one of our most respected citizens in the person of Mrs. John A. Johnston, Mrs.
Johnston had been in failing health for some time, but bore her suffering with christian patience and fortitude.

She leaves to mourn her loss, a husband, three daughters, Mrs. H.
Walter of Flourant, Mrs. S. J. Mc-Kinnon, of Oak Bay Mills, P. Q., at home, one son, John A. also living at home, two sisters, Mrs. L. Baker, of Oak Bay Mills, Mrs. Chas. Williamson, of the Glen, Esquimaux, and two brothers, Archibald A. Adams, and Harvey E. Adams, both of Oak Bay Mills, P. Q.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. George Gough, pastor of the congregation, assisted by Rev. G. S. K. Anderson of Somerville, Mass. Interment was made at Kempt Road cemetery, and the large attendance at the funeral shows the building of the Valley Railroad ed the high esteem in which the development almost walked off with the steel conceal was held.
