at one of the horse auctions so common throughout France. The artist studied eighteen months on this picture, and attended the horse market in Paris twice a week. The scene represents a number of horses being driven to the selling stand, and for vigor of action and trace of motion has never been equalled. In the whole picture the possis so life-like, the drawing is so true, that you can scarcely persuade yourself that the scene is not real. This picture has been exhibited in all the principal cities of Europe, where the cultured flocked to see it. It was bought by Cornelius Vanderbilt for more than $50,000.

We are now handling a magnificent reproduction of this picture which far surpasses anything ever offered in this line. It is printed on heavy plate paper of an unusually large size, namely, 34 inches long by 20 wide, and embraces not only the beauty of a fine steel engraving, but enriches and intensifies that effect by combining a number of other tones and tints so as to give the finest result yet attained by any known process. As a noted critic has said of it, you can gaze at this picture a hundred times a day and each time see some naw beauty to please you and some unexpected point of strength to exerte your admiration. Nine cents extra must be added for nostage and packing. Address, Editor Ladies Journal, Toronto Canada.

TORONTO, 1212 KING-ST. WEST, MAY 20TH, '89, WM. McCABE, ESQ.,

Managing Director, North American Life Assurance Co'y., DEAR SIR :

I am really more than obliged to your Company, not only for the promptness with which you have paid me the sum of $1000 within three days after the death of my husband, but also for the sympathetic and kind manner in which your agent, Mr. R. Lovell, acted in assisting me in filling up the necessary papers, so as to endeavor to relieve me of all trouble and anxiety in connection with the matter. My husband had been insured with your Companya little over a year, and but for the accident which caused his death would ere this have increased the amount to $5000. He was well satisfied with the policy and the Company. Your treatment of me fully confirms the good opinion he held of your Company.

Yours truly, AGNES HAY.
