Feeling pretty certain that War Cry-Clara, the O.C. had no object in securing the animal's retention here and his sudden removal will have no effect on the decision. The owner, D. G. Macdonald, alone will be affected. The committee will meet soon and decide whether he will be ruled off the turf or not.

THE GRAND OLD GAME. Proposed English County Cricket Match in Toronto. Mr. Jackson's Letter. The following letter and possible suggestions to the World:

Cricket, the English national game, is gradually becoming more and more popular every season in Canada. For the most part the cricket clubs in the city are composed largely of men who first handled the willow in the Mother Country. I find that in one of the clubs there is quite a fair sprinkling of Yorkshiremen; Lancashire and Nottingham are also well represented; Middlesex could not do so, as it is a long distance from the Mother Country, Kent and other counties are also well represented. ## JAMES EATON'S FIRE SALE. NOTICES.

1st.-As far as possible do not ask us to be troubled with the delivery of parcels. Every night wagon is out till late.

2nd.-Hold on to your pocket books in the crowds—two ladies lost their purses.

3rd.-Don't find fault with us if your parcel isn't done up as quick as at regular times—we're trying our best to wait on you—and public—as best we can.

4th.-We claim to produce the Most Stylish, the Most Durable and the Best All-round BOY'S SUIT FOR $2.50.

To be found in the city. Now then, that's easy enough said, so don't take it for granted. Come in some day after you have visited other stores and are posted on prices and give these $2.50 SUITS.

Of ours a critical and intelligent examination.

THE PEOPLE BELIEVE OUR ADVERTISEMENTS AND COME. They go away satisfied. Those who have been waiting till the biggest crowds cease don't wait till the biggest bargains cease. Don't wait any longer! Now's your chance. Fight your way to the counters. We've hoisted our sails, put all steam on, and have enough fuel to keep us sailing against all competition for Forty-Seven days yet.

This morning we place on the counters:

2000 Handkerchiefs at 10 each, worth 25c. 2000 yards of fine French Satens 12 1/2c each. 500 yards Table Linen, damask, at 25c each, worth 40c. 3000 yards of 100 Prints at 7c each. 2000 yards of all-wool French Diaperes, all colors, 25c each, worth 40c and 50c.

We are the people that can quote low prices. When and where did you ever see such vast crowds as those that are daily crowding this store? Giving goods at far less than other stores draws the crowds. Trade is at a standstill all over town. Travelers tell us they can't sell their goods. Merchants say James Eaton & Co. are selling at tremendous losses and can't stand it very long. All right, James Eaton & Company will cross that bridge when they come to it.

Thousands of ladies are fighting for their chance at the Underwear counters. Our Underwear prices before the Fire Sale started were peerless this whole land over. What is it like now? Some were burned, some wet and some only smoked, and some new. Every garment at lower prices by 50 per cent than any other store in the universe. Come out as early as possible. Don't wait for the advertisement. Come with the thousands.
