Sir,—

I was very much pleased to read in your valuable paper the letter from Mr. S. Welch respecting our fallen Heroes' monument. Mr. Welch, like myself, ethinks that something should be done in memory of those brave fellows lying "Over There." Day in Watford and each Boy was presented with a beautiful gold ring which I feel sure that every Boy appreciated very much. Now why not have a "Supreme Sacrifice Day" for the brave boys who gave their lives for us. I am willing to assist Mr. Welch in any possible way towards obtaining this object.

If you will kindly give me this space in your valuable paper I shall be very thankful, and remain.

Sgt. H. Thomas.

On Monday evening about seventy-five of the friends and neighbors met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Lucas to bid farewell prior to their departure to Alvinston where they intend making their show where they intend making their shows the future. A splendid program of speeches and music was engoyed by all, after which Mr. and Mrs. Lucas were presented with two handsome leather chairs and an address. Mrs. Lucas made a very touching reply in thanking for the remembrance so kindly griven. The laddres then served hunch to be which ample justice was done.

Following is the address.
