

If You Send Money Home

use a Bank Money Order, if in Canada—and a Draft, if abroad. Never send the actual cash in a letter, which may be stolen or destroyed and the entire remittance lost. The convenience and safety of The Merchants Bank Money Orders and Drafts are well worth their small cost.

ARKONA

Mr. and Mrs. D. Johnson returned Wednesday from Niagara Falls, where they have been visiting their daughter.

At the regular meeting of the local Masonic lodge, officers for the year were installed as follows by P. M. Herb. Hall: W. M., Otto Schmidt; S. W., H. Dowding; J. W., Wm. Woollett; J. D., Mr. Brown; S. D., Geo. Lampman; treasurer, Fred Eastman; chaplain, Rev. Mr. Redcliffe; secretary, Alex. Thoman; D. of C., Mr. Thoman; senior stewards, L. Murray and Fred Glover; inside tyler, Ed. Crawford; outside tyler, Phil Austin.

James, the son of Hugh Johnson, was severely bitten in the face by a horse, while playing with some other boys in the barn. Three stitches were required to close the wound. Infection has since set in, caused by poison in the horse's teeth, which has added to the seriousness of the case.

DEATH OF FORMER WARWICK RESIDENT

(From the Rouleau Enterprise.) The death occurred in Rouleau, Friday, Nov. 26th, whereby the town loses one of its most respected residents, Mr. W. H. Stewart. The deceased had been in failing health since August and had a paralytic stroke on November 13th, from which he did not recover.

Deceased was born in Montague, Lanark County, April 8th, 1839. In 1872 he was married to Ann Jane Phillips and there were five children, two having died, Edna at the age of five, and Elmer at the age of twenty-nine. He leaves to mourn his loss, his wife and three sons, Albert, Clarence and Lloyd.

He was a staunch member of the L. O. L., becoming a member when not quite sixteen, by initiation in L. O. L. 439, Carp, Carleton County, in 1856, returning to his boyhood home in Montague, Lanark Co., he joined L. O. L. No. 31, of which he was elected Master, and as such attended the meeting of Grand Lodge of Eastern Canada, held in the town of Perth in 1867. In 1869 he moved from his old home in Lanark County, settling in Warwick township and joined L. O. L. 516, of which lodge he acted as Treasurer for over 20 years. In 1885 he was elected County Master for East Lambton, which post he filled for six terms. In 1889 he was elected auditor and was re-elected continuously for nineteen years (with one exception) and as such auditor audited the books of Grand Lodge Benefit Fund from its transfer from Ontario West till 1907, a period of about sixteen years. Except one meeting held in Winnipeg in 1898 he attended every meeting of M.W. Grand Lodge from 1885 up and including 1907, which was held in Vancouver. These with three meetings in the West made 25 sessions in all and during the same time was present at 16 meetings of Grand Lodge of Ontario West. He was one of the oldest members of the Orange Lodge, being sixty-six years in the order.

In municipal life he was fairly active. When he left Montague in 1869 he resigned the office of auditor for that township and in 1874 he was appointed municipal clerk for Warwick Township, a position he held continuously until 1906, when he resigned to go West, and received a neat testimonial from the council of that municipality. He also held the office of auditor for the Lambton County Insurance Company and likewise had to resign. He was for several years along with the County Judge on the Board of Criminal Justice for the County of Lambton, and for ten years Secretary of the Warwick and Forest Agricultural Society. After moving to Rouleau, Sask., he was for four years after incorporation, Sec.-Treasurer of the new town.

The funeral was held on Monday and was largely attended.

Douglas Dobbyn, of Shetland, while in the bush with Delbert Brownlee, had the misfortune to have his leg broken. A limb from one of the trees they were cutting flew back, striking Mr. Dobbyn on the leg.

Advertising space in the London Daily Mail costs $25 an inch, and a whole page $6,000. In English papers generally the larger the space an advertiser takes, the higher the rate.

Eleanor H. May, relict of the late Joshua H. Cronkite, of Plympton, died Dec. 18th, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Harry Millard, Spring City, Pa. She was in her 76th year. Mrs. Cronkite was the last survivor of the May family who lived near Camlachie many years ago.

FRAGILE, PALE AND MISERABLE

The Melancholy State of Thousands of Bloodless Children and Young Girls.

How often do you hear the remark "She is very delicate?" How often it means that some young woman is living in misery, suffering from periods of prostration, dizziness, loss of appetite and disordered digestion. Headaches afflict her at intervals; pain in the back and limbs follow any exertion. She is never well.

This fragile state of health, this lack of vitality, calls for prompt treatment. The blood must be nourished and made strong enough to vitalize the system that is so lacking in energy. In such cases Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have proved remarkably successful in making the new, rich, red blood necessary in restoring tone to the system. Mrs. L. M. Duncan, South Mountain, Ont., tells of the wonderful benefit Dr. Williams' Pink Pills made in the case of her young daughter. She says: "It is only right that I should let you know of the good derived from the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills by our girl of eleven years. She was always very thin and not gaining in weight. Her appetite was poor and she had no desire for wholesome food. Finally we decided to give her Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. After taking one box, she went away on a three weeks' vacation, taking three boxes of pills with her, which she took regularly while she was away. When she returned home we were surprised and delighted to see how well she looked, and to find that she had gained seven pounds in weight. She had a much better color and her appetite had improved so that she was always ready for her meals. She continued using the pills until she had taken seven boxes, and the great improvement they made in her condition was noticed by many around here. I can only add that I believe Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a splendid medicine."

The best time to begin taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is the moment you feel the least bit out of sorts. The sooner you do so the sooner you will regain your old time energy. You can get these pills through any medicine dealer or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 form The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.
