PATTERSON MAKES AN OFFER.
Mr. John Patterson has offered to give Mr. Clark the sum of $5,000 as soon as the latter's road is built and in operation from Berlin to Pt. Dover and to deposit the same with the Berlin council in the meantime if required. This, in addition to running powers over his road, would go to show that Mr. Patterson wishes to act most fairly and does not fear any opposition from Mr. Clark.

Very Neat and Clean
To Those who appreciate Cleanliness and Tidiness
The Gas Store is led possible. If you have a Gas Range your help has no longer any reason for smoky faces and smoky clothes or a generally unpleasant appearance. In the kitchen harness the good gas cook-stove and dirt is in the parable comparison of the coal range.
With a gas stove dirt is impossible. No soot, no ashes, no gunny burners, no excessive heat. A Gas Range is worth its weight in GOLD.

BRANDY CHOCOLATES.
An analysis made of the brandy chocolates and forwarded to the Ontario License Department, shows in 100 of the samples there was 17.96 alcohol. The other samples were found to contain 5.61, 17.14 and 18.13 alcohol. As yet, the department has not decided what steps they will take in prosecuting. By the London cases they know where they stand and will see that candies containing intoxicants are not made by confectioners.
