

WEEKLY MONITOR.

General News.

John Annis and others, of Caldwell, have received $12,000 for their recently discovered lead in Green field.

The New York Herald says: "John Henry Hall, with a young friend from Nova Scotia, started on an evening about three weeks ago into the night."

The new remedy that has just been introduced in this country, called Seavey's Best India Liniment, is getting great notice.

Mr. William Moody, of the Gulf Shore, Cumberland, who completed his 100th year in March last, still retains his active habits.

When all was said, Mr. E. Mitchell says: "She has great pleasure in testifying to the beneficial effects derived from Eadon's Case of Phosphates in Chronic Bronchitis and General Debility."

The Atlantic Telephone Company are extending their line from Digby to Annapolis. A number of men are now employed putting up the poles along the route, which is via Bear River.

St. John Oct. 3.—The cruiser General Middleton arrived here today. Captain McLean reports that there is an extraordinary run of herring about St. Andrews bay.

Newspaper Advertising.—The business world is every day becoming more and more impressed with the fact that there is no kind of advertising so valuable in any line of business as newspaper advertising.

The Seven Tunnel, which has been thirteen years in construction, and is now nearly completed, was opened a fortnight ago for traffic.

London, September 28.—The Foreign Office and the United States Legation authorize the statement that the report telegraphed from Ottawa that a new factory treaty had been concluded is a mere fabrication, and that no such treaty has been proposed by either Government.

Washington, Oct. 2.—Secretary of state has received information from the Canadian minister in Halifax, N. S., that the report telegraphed from Ottawa that a new factory treaty had been concluded is a mere fabrication, and that no such treaty has been proposed by either Government.

At a late meeting of the Richmond, Eng., board of guardians the master reported that among the applicants for admission to the house was a woman who, on being asked as usual to enter, had not washed her body for nine years, and she did not seem to be in the least embarrassed by the fact.

William Jack, C. St. John, who had been very ill for some days, died yesterday. Mr. Jack was one of the pious members of the local profession in New Brunswick, his name standing third on a list of trustees in this province and a prominent citizen of St. John's.

Ottawa, Sept. 30.—There remains no longer any doubt that the Government intend to hold a session this fall. Sir Hector Langevin has given orders to have the House of Commons under the same management as usual.

Burdock grows very plentifully in this Province, and when properly compounded with Yellow Dock, Scarcilla, and Mandrake, forms one of the best Blood Purifiers known.

High Seas.—The schooner Onyx has this season lost her cargo of coffee, and she is now on her way to Nova Scotia. Her cargo consisted of 100 tons of coffee, valued at $100,000.

Montgomery, Ala., Sept. 29.—A child of respectable family, five years of age, was drowned on Sunday afternoon to play near the banks of the river.

A SPEDDY CURE.—As a speedy cure for Dyspepsia, Cholera, Malaria, Diarrhoea, Colic, Campy, Sick Bowel, and all forms of Summer Complaint, there is no remedy more reliable than Dr. Fowler's Sarsaparilla.

Considerable interest has been aroused in the scientific world in Rome by a gentleman named Giovanni Succi, who professes to have discovered a process by which man can fast for thirty or forty days or even two months at a time.

The October Century.

Few numbers of the Century have appeared to wide an audience with topics of such general interest as the October issue, editorial in "Topics of the Time" announces that in the November number will be given the first chapter in the authorized life of Lincoln.

The authorized life of Lincoln, by John G. Nicolay and John Hay, who were the President's private secretaries, and Lincoln is the greatest figure in American history, so are the most biographers by opportunity, so that the life of Lincoln is qualified to make the story of his life a great American literature.
