No More Efficient

Orator—When I was in Africa I discovered a tribe whose husbands all wore rings in their noses.

Heckler—And were they led round any easier than the rest of us?

CANADIAN ELECTIONS

The date for the general election has been announced for December 6th. This date has never been chosen before, the nearest approach to it being December 17th, 1917. When the speed of compiling election returns to-day is considered, with presses standing in readiness to turn out extras by the tens of thousands a few hours after the voting has ceased, it comes like a glimpse into the far distant past to recall that in 1867 the elections were held from August 7th to September 20th. In 1872 it also took from July 20th to October 12th. With these two exceptions, the elections have been one day affairs, and on the following dates:

| | |
|------|--------------|
| 1874 | January 22 |
| 1878 | September 17 |
| 1882 | June 29 |
| 1887 | February 22 |
| 1891 | March 5 |
| 1896 | June 23 |
| 1900 | November 7 |
| 1904 | November 3 |
| 1908 | October 26 |
| 1911 | September 21 |
| 1917 | December 17 |
| 1921 | December 6 |

1867—Conservatives, 101; Liberals, 80.

1872—Conservatives, 103; Liberals, 97.

1874—Liberals, 132; Conservatives, 73.

1878—Conservatives, 137; Liberals, 69.

1882—Conservatives, 139; Liberals, 71.

1887—Conservatives, 122; Liberals, 93.

1891—Conservatives, 123; Liberals, 92.

1896—Liberals, 117; Conservatives, 89.

1900—Liberals, 128; Conservatives, 78.

1904—Liberals, 139; Conservatives, 75.

1908—Liberals, 133; Conservatives, 85.

1911—Conservatives, 133; Liberals, 86.

1917—Government (Unionist), 151; Opposition, 82.

Probably two of the most outstanding general elections, carrying with them the most striking results, were those when the Government of Sir John A. Macdonald was thrown from power following the publicity that was thrown on the deal which passed into Canadian history under the heading of the Pacific Scandal. Of almost equal magnitude was his return to power, turning an adverse majority of 69 to a favorable one of 66. Sir Wilfrid Laurier's sweep in 1896 was also one of the outstanding elections. He was faced with a House of 123 Conservatives and 92 Liberals, and came back with 177 Liberals and 89 Conservatives.

Of more recent date and still fresh in the minds of voters, is the contest of 1911, when on the Reciprocity election the Liberals were overwhelmingly defeated, to the surprise of Conservatives fully as much as to the Liberals.—London Advertiser.

SIXTEEN MEN ARE BURNED TO DEATH

Bucharest, Nov. 8.—Sixteen soldiers were burned to death when the Radevsky barracks, where the loyal government troops are stationed, was destroyed by fire. The fire is the climax of the operations of a gang of unknown incendiaries who, during the past fortnight, have set fire to three mills and four factories. The police assert the belief that the setting fire to the barracks was vengeance for the activities of those opposed to former King Charles.

PRE-HISTORIC PILE

Notwithstanding that Poroka, Alta., is one of the new towns in Western Canada, this is how the Ponoka Herald, published by the Postmaster of that bustling place, reports an improvement in the railway yard: "That pre-historic pile, known as the Ponoka railway depot, has received a coat of paint, likewise the water tank, pump house and stock guards, adding much to the appearance of the place and staff."

Some people manage to dodge enough work to keep a dozen people busy.

THE WORLD'S LONGEST TUNNEL

One of the greatest tunnels in the world is nearing completion.

The new Simpson Tunnel will shortly be ready for traffic, and its transportation from a mere gallery into an international high road, and which was first started in December, 1912, will greatly stimulate business conducted between Channel ports and those of the Mediterranean.

Tremendous difficulties have been encountered and overcome in making the tunnel. Hot springs had to be drained away; and at one spot, about two and a half miles from the Italian opening, the rock pressure was so great that 18 months was spent in boring 50 yards at a cost of 160,000 pound sterling.

The whole tunnel is 12 1/4 miles long, of which 5 1/4 lies in Swiss territory. Electric traction will be used, so that this will be the cleanest tunnel in Europe.

The longest tunnel in England is the Severn Tunnel. Its length is 4 1/2 miles, and it was built in 1873-1881, and during the recent railway strike was in some danger of being flooded and irrevocably ruined.

A FINE NEW BUILDING

(Annapolis Spectator)

Certainly one of the finest and most creditable additions to the town buildings since the fire is the store and dwelling of M. C. McDormand, opposite the Post Office. Although this was begun only seven weeks ago the contractors, Denton and Condon, have brought it along in such excellent shape that it is now ready for occupation as completely as if its construction had occupied five times as long, and the proprietors will take possession next week. The grocery on the ground floor is easily the finest shop now in town. 12 feet high, handsome, and equipped with a fine specimen of the new style pipeless furnace, having also a comfortable office in rear on one side and commodious "back shop" for packing, etc., on the other. Above is one of the finest and most modern dwellings in town, large hall, ample closets, parlor and dining room, kitchen, three bedrooms and bath, laid off in a manner it would be difficult to improve upon. All concerned are to be heartily congratulated.

GOOD SHOES TO COST $3.50 AND $1.

Boston, Nov. 9.—The era of high shoe prices is practically ended and in the near future it will be possible to purchase good shoes for $3.50 and $4. L. Q. White, President of the L. Q. White Shoe Company of Bridgewater, told the state board of conciliation and arbitration.

Speaking at a hearing on a proposed wage cut of 25% Mr. White asserted that the cheaper shoes would be made in St. Louis and that unless Massachusetts manufacturers could reduce their wage scales they would be unable to meet western competition. He added that the proposed reduction was necessary if his plant were to continue in operation.

The representatives of the Boot & Shoe Workers' Union charged that the White factory was being made the "feeler" by shoe manufacturers in the Brockton district in attempts to reduce wages.

YARMOUTH MAN DIES SUDDENLY

Yarmouth, Nov. 16.—The death occurred this evening of one of Yarmouth's most prominent citizens in the person of Roy F. Kelly, at his residence, South East street, following an illness of 24 hours. He was 40 years old. He was well known business man throughout Nova Scotia, being manager of the Minard's Liniment Company, Limited. He was also an enthusiastic yachtsman and was formerly secretary of the Yarmouth Yacht Club. Among other offices held by Mr. Kelly were those of secretary of the Liberal Association, Deputy Game Commissioner and Deputy Sheriff.

He is survived by a widow, one son and one daughter, who are on a vacation in Massachusetts, and also his mother, three brothers, Clifford R. and Aubrey, of Yarmouth and Murray D. of Hamilton, Ont., and one sister, Mrs. Perry, of Saskatchewan.

ARCTIC PARTY IS SAFE IN SIBERIA

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 8.—Vilhjalmur Stefansson, Arctic explorer, announced to-night that a party he had sent from Nome, Alaska, to Wrangell Island, about one hundred miles north of Siberia, to establish a base for what he said would be a huge British exploring party into the North had arrived safely at their destination.

Angelle

It was one of those rare occasions when a famous lawyer had lost a case, and he wasn't feeling very happy over it.

"Your profession doesn't make angels out of men, does it?" said a medical friend, teasingly.

"No," retorted the lawyer, "that's one thing we leave to you doctors!"

ABLE TO DO HER WORK

After Long Suffering Mrs. Peasey Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Toronto, Ont.—"I suffered with irregular menstruation, was weak and run down, could not eat and had headaches. The worst symptoms were dragging down pains, so bad I sometimes thought I would go crazy and I seemed to be smothering. I was in this condition for two or three years and could not seem to work. I tried all kinds of medicines and had been treated by physicians but received no benefit. I found one of your booklets and felt inclined to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I received the best results from it and now I keep house and go out to work and am like a new woman. I have recommended your Vegetable Compound to my friends and if these facts will help some poor woman use them as you please."—Mrs. J. F. PEASEY, 387 King St., Toronto, Ontario.

If you are one of these women do not suffer for four or five years as Mrs. Peasey did, but profit by her experience and be restored to health.

ONE WOMAN ON ARBUCKLE JURY

May Be More As Only Five So Far Accepted—Comedian Glum In Court.

San Francisco, Nov. 15.—Twelve venire members examined and five jurors accepted tentatively, one of them, a woman, was the situation at the opening of the second day of the trial of Roscoe C. (Patty) Arbuckle, here to-day, on a charge of manslaughter.

Without any sign of his "million dollar smile," the comedian sat glumly through the proceedings of the first day. It is expected that the jury will be completed by Thursday. Prospective jurors were subjected to searching interrogation as to their knowledge of the case, and their predictions among stars of the screen.

MISSING WITNESS FOUND

Chicago, Nov. 15.—Miss Betty Campbell, long sought as an important witness in the Arbuckle case, was found to-day in her home here. Miss Campbell, who is twenty, said she was a member of the party at which Virginia Ramey met her death. She denied she had attempted to hide from the San Francisco authorities.

BRITAIN TO PAY INTEREST ON DEBT

Millions Of Pounds Yearly Will Be Paid To United States.

London, Nov. 9.—An arrangement has been made to begin paying the interest on the debt owed by Great Britain to the United States at the rate of $50,000,000 yearly, it was announced in the House of Commons to-day by Sir Robert Horne, the Chancellor of the Exchequer.

Sir Robert made this announcement in the course of statement on the budget prospects. He added with emphasis:

"I hope this remark about the debt we owe the United States will not be the occasion for any discussion of the inter-Alleibedness. It does not conduce to discuss that matter at all at present."

"Any careful reader of the United States press," he continued, "would discover how much harm already has been done by that discussion. Our attitude in regard to our debt must be that what we owe we shall always be prepared to pay and that we shall meet our obligations however hard and difficult the circumstances may be."

Choice Of Language

"I speak four languages," proudly boasted the door man of a hotel in Rome to an American guest. "Yes, four—Italian, French, English and American."

"But English and American are the same," protested the guest.

"Not at all," replied the man. "If an Englishman should come up now, I should talk like this: 'Oh, I say, what extraordinarily shocking weather we're having! I dare say there'll be a bit of it ahead.' But when you came up I was just getting ready to say: 'For the love of Mike! Some day, ain't it? Guess this is the second flood, all right.'"

A Near Relative

A wicked exchange says a woman whose husband was in the habit of coming home tipsy at night decided to cure him by fright. So one night she arrayed herself in frightful apparel and when the boozey husband entered the front door she said in dread and sepulchral tones: "Come with me, I am the devil!" "Zat sho? Shake, I am your brother-in-law. I married your sister."
