

- Madawaska, New Brunswick, ii. 254.
River, Upper Canada, 291.
- Mahone Bay, Nova Scotia, ii. 160, 162.
- Manitou, the guardian spirit of the Indian, i. 74, 84.
- Manitoulin Island, Great, Upper Canada, i. 23, 136; iii. 346.
- Manufactures of the Canadas, ii. 27-30. British, imported, 31.
- Maple sugar, manufacture of, i. 346; ii. 29; iii. 313, 314.
- Marriot, natural history of, iii. 247.
- Martin, a valuable furred animal, iii. 86. Natural history of, 231.
- May, Henry, shipwreck and deliverance of, ii. 332-335.
- Megantic county, Quebec District, i. 278.
- Melville Island, Arctic Ocean, iii. 339.
- Michigan, Lake, i. 24; iii. 337.
- Michillimackinac, Fort, i. 144, 154, 170. Taken by the British, 186. American attack, repulsed, 189.
- Micmac Indians of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, ii. 214.
- Middlesex county, London District, Upper Canada, i. 324.
- Midland District, Central division, Upper Canada, i. 302, 303.
- Minas Basin or Bay, Nova Scotia, ii. 170, 173, 190.
- Mineral products of Nova Scotia and Cape Breton, ii. 194-197; of New Brunswick, 250.
- Mingan Isles, Gulf of St Lawrence, iii. 344.
- Miramichi River, New Brunswick, ii. 225. Magnificent forests on its banks, 238; great conflagration of, 239.
- Missionaries among the native Indians, i. 133-138; ii. 64, 67-70. Moravian brethren, 303-307.
- Mohawks, an Indian tribe, i. 139, 142; ii. 67.
- Money and exchanges in the Canadas, ii. 40.
- Montcalm, Marquis de, reduces Forts Oswego and William-Henry, i. 174. His death, 177.
- Montmorenci, Falls of, i. 245, 252.
- Montreal District, Lower Canada, i. 259-270, 272-274.
- Montreal, city of, Lower Canada, founded by the French, i. 111. Its progress, 131, 169. Becomes the centre of the fur trade, 171. Capitulates to the British, 178. Taken, and afterwards evacuated, by the Americans, 180, 183. Description, 259-263; ii. 50. [A statement regarding the harbour of Montreal more recent than that given in volume i. pages 262, 263, will be found in volume ii. page 50.]
- Montreal, island of, i. 131, 259.
- Moose Fort, Hudson's Bay Territory, iii. 88.
- N.
- Nain, the seat of the Moravian missionaries, Labrador, ii. 304.
- Navy Island, Niagara Channel, i. 233, 235.
- Nelson River, Hudson's Bay Territory, iii. 16, 18, 40, 338.
- New Brunswick, history and description of, ii. 224-241. Its extent and boundaries, 224. Soil and climate, 225, 242. Settlement and progress, 226; iii. 169. Division into counties, ii. 227. Statistical table, 228. County and town of St John, 228-230. King's county, Queen's county, 230. Sunbury county, York county, 231. Carleton county, 233. Charlotte county, 236. Westmoreland county, Northumberland county, 237. Conflagration of the forests, 239. Kent county, Gloucester county, 240.
- New Brunswick, industry, commerce, social and political state of, ii. 242-256. Agriculture, soil, and climate, 242-245. Timber-trade, 245-249. Mode of collecting the timber, 246. Saw-mills, 247. American and Baltic timber, 247-249. Fisheries, 250. Minerals—coal and gypsum, 250. Commerce—exports and imports, 251. Recent improvements, 252. Population, 253. Religious instruction, 254. Education, constitution, revenue, 255. Military defence, 256. Emigration, iii. 176-179. Geology, 347.
- New Brunswick Land Company, ii. 232, 242; iii. 178, 179.
- Newcastle District, Central division, Upper Canada, i. 305.
- Newfoundland, ii. 275-328. General description of, 275. The Great Bank, 276. Discovery of the island, 277. Early fisheries, 278. First attempts at settlement—colonies by Lord Baltimore and others, 281. Persecution of the fishermen, 283. Contests with France, 284-286, 289. Extension of the fishery, 286-289. Effects of the American war; subsequent events, 287-290. Statistical table, 291. Cod fishery, mode of conducting it, 308-311; produce, 311. Seal fishery, 311-