Married students of Wives of students.

11. Ejini Yesudasu......

There are 100 students from our Mission Fields, 5 students from the Maritime Provinces' Mission Fields, making a total of 105. There are also 7 day students whose names 1 have not given. The following names do not appear on the foregoing list: Vottupolu Venkataswami and wife. The wife had to return home, which necessitated the husband following. The same happened in the case of Gotru Satyanandam and wife.

Chirugudi Ramaswami's wife died and he returned to his friends.

Dundi Josiah is studying in Cocanada.

Bonu Daniel is studying in Ongole.

George Mason left the Seminary irregularly -was married, and is to become a teacher, I understand.

Komuguri Samson went home on account of illness andremains out during 1894.

Talari Vesudasu and Rachapalli Appanna have been given teaching work on the Peddapurman field and Pulavaiti Daniel on the Akidu field.

Pasala Ratnam and Chintala Gabriel went home on account of illness—have not returned.

Morampudi Nukatu dismissed on account of incapacity.

Hereafter the Seminary year will begin in January. To effect this some changes have been made in classification which will appear in the foregoing list. Some new students have joined us while others have gone out. Friends will please note these changes.

J. R. STILLWELL,

KING'S MESSENGERS.

When a king would send a message,
How fast the carriers ride!
Through darksome wood, through torrent,
Whether good or ill betide:
No pleasure can entice them,
No lurement in love's wiles:
On, swiftly on, by day, by night,
On, on! for weary miles.

If a messenger should larry, Should a servant idly wait, For fear, or love, or pleasure, Outside the palace gate: If the king upon the feast-day Should miss a well-loved one, How think you, would he fare Who should have build him come.

King's messengers must hasten, King's servants must be wise, Then loiter not, nor dally, When He bids you arise; For men grow weary waiting For the servants who should bring Their bufdened, famished, longing souls A message from the King.

-Golden Kule.

WHICH ARE SAD THINGS?

At the annual meeting of the Woman's Baptist Missionary Society, held in Albany, N.Y., while the seven young ladies who are under appointment for the foreign field were telling of the leadings that had brought them to the happiest decision of their lives, some one-in the audience was heard to say, "How sad!"

"Sad?" said a veteran now doing good work here, but
