

mend a procession of the Order, at six o'clock to-morrow evening, and a public meeting immediately after, when addresses will be delivered by G. W. P., Bro. Bayne, and Creelman.

Bro. Munroe offered the following resolution :—

That the Law authorising the sale of intoxicating liquors, by a select number of individuals, is impolitic and unjust, founded upon fraud, and tends to demoralize the people.

And that this Committee recommends to Temperance organizations and all friends of the Temperance cause, to petition the Legislature at next session, to repeal any Law for that purpose now in existence.

Resolved, That the foregoing resolution be published in the Report of proceedings of the present session, in order that Subordinate Divisions may see the same, and take the subject matter thereof into their consideration, and be prepared to convey to this Division at their sitting in October next, their opinion of the propriety of moving in the manner contemplated.

Referred to Committee to report.
