Sparkles.

A SMALL Scotch boy was summoned to give evidence against his father, who was accused of making disturbances in the streets. Said the bailie to him: "Come, my wee mon, speak the truth and let us know all ye ken about this affair." "Weel, sir," said the lad, "d'ye ken Inverness Street?" "I do, laddie," replied his worship. "Weel, ye gang along it and turn into the square, and across the square—" "Yes, yes," said the bailie, encouragingly. "An' when ye gang across the square ye turn to the right and up into High Street, and keep on up High Street till ye come to a pump." "Quite right, my lad; proceed," said his worship. "I know the old pump well." "Well," said the boy, with the most infantile simplicity, "ye may gang and pump it, for ye'll no pump me."

SIRS,—For five years I suffered from lumbago and could get no relief until I used Haggard's Yellow Oil, and must say I find no better remedy for it. JOHN DESHERDAN, Sandwich, Ont.

A HEARD a minister preach and read an original poem. Mr. Blank asked him if "he did not think it was the most beautiful thing he ever heard?" A said "No; the sermon was dull and the 'poem' incomprehensible." She exclaimed: "Did you? Why, I am surprised." Then, waiting, she said: "Well, you know I am so deaf, I couldn't hear a word of either, but supposed that, coming from so eminent a divine, they must be above ordinary."

By constipation is meant irregular action of the bowels, often called costiveness, and commonly caused by dyspepsia, neglect, excess in eating or drinking, etc. It is a serious complaint, and not to be neglected under any circumstance, as it leads to impure blood, headache, debility, fevers, etc. A uniformly successful remedy is Burdock Blood Bitters, which, if faithfully tried, never fails to effect a prompt and lasting cure even in the worst cases. The following extract from a letter from Mr. Jas. M. Carson, Banff, N.W.T., will speak for itself:—"I have been troubled with constipation and general debility, and was induced to use your B. B. B. through seeing your advertisement. I now take great pleasure in recommending it to all my friends, as it completely cured me."

SWEET little Mary was greatly elated because her long curls lay on the barber's floor, and were not to trouble her through the hot summer. "My hair is cutter oft than it was," she proudly informed a visitor. But something in the laughter which followed caused her to think she had made a mistake, so to another she said: "My hair is cut offter than it was."

THE bye-elections have passed by and we can now consider the best protection against disease: There is unrestricted reciprocity of sentiment between all people in Canada in pronouncing Burdock Blood Bitters the very best blood purifier, dyspepsia and headache remedy, and general tonic renovating medicine before the public.

MR. GLADSTONE is described as a confirmed hatter of book-stalls. To avoid being mobbed he wears in this occupation the seediest of coats and hats. He has been a book collector for three-quarters of a century, having now in his possession a book which was presented to him by Hannah More in 1815. He doesn't much care for modern first editions, but says: "I like a tall copy."

THE DREADED LA GRIPPE.—Following this scourge of humanity comes a train of evils in the shape of obstinate colds, coughs, lung troubles, etc. There is no remedy so prompt, and at the same time effectual and pleasant, as Milburn's Cod Liver Oil Emulsion with Wild Cherry and Hypophosphites, which is the latest and best combination of anti-consumptive remedies. Price 50c. and $1 per bottle.

Let us break the sod in spring-time, And sow our scanty seed, Though we weep o'er vacant caskets, And wait in patient need; Though we wait in dark, sad places, And plead one drop of rain, God is God of seed and harvest, And labour is not vain.
