

The boy who is absolutely certain that he knows all is generally the one who knows nothing. Guess again !

The basket-ball league which came to a close some few weeks ago, was a complete success. Captain Byrnes's team won the championship, and deserves much credit for its clever work.

The Junior Cricket Club, under the careful management of Masters Beard and Kehoe, is fast becoming a popular organization, and bids fair to surpass the Senior Tennis Club.

Teacher—Who is the greatest man in English history ?
Careless Aleck quickly cried out, Queen Victoria.

The winner in the prize map contest for the second grade will have his name published in the May issue.

Flanagan, our young French scholar, wishing to retire before the others, went to the prefect with the following burst of his knowledge, "I'l faut que j'ai vais cracher."

What was the cause of the war of 1812 ?
Bright boy—The search for light.

The Easter Oral Examinations are over, and were successful in every respect. The Junior Editor feels proud in extending warm words of congratulation to his band of small boys, for their good showing at these examinations. He urges his young friends to keep up the good work, so as to be able at the end of the term, to bring to their parents a reward worthy of the sacrifices made in their behalf. The following is a list of the first four students in the grades :—

I. Grade (Div. A).—1. G. Vallilee, 522 out of 600 points.

2. F. Hamel, . . . 521	"	"
3. J. Kehoe, . . . 516	"	"
4. P. Mulligan, 515	"	"

I. Grade (Div. B).—1. L. Traversy, 509

2. S. Chalifour, 472	"	"
3. G. Doyon, 471	"	"
4. E. Ouillett, 465	"	"