CLARK'S OIL CAN FAUCETS.

Mr. Chas. H. Clark was the inventor and original manufacturer of The Angle Plug and Straightaway Oil Can Faucets shown here.

These goods are used by manufacturers of oil cans throughout the United States and Canada. They are conveniently operated, and are fitted with thick fibre washers and double running thread. They are made of brass, nicely machined and nickel plated. The oil has a nearly direct flow and cannot ooze through the threads. These goods are
