[FOR THE CRITIC.] NOVA SCOTIA.

AN ACROSTIC.

Nova Scotia, fair Province by the sea,
O ter healt I may thy children be;
Vainly may or mies and traitors strive,
Against each purpose fell, still may'st thou thrive;
Secunda nulli, Scotia I may at thou be
Constant in firm, unbending loyalts;
Onward and upward be thy motto bold.
Truth, Honor, Justice shall it y hands uphold;
Infelia Civitas, thou he erical lat prove
Against our prayers for thee our hopes, our tears, our love.
Hantsport, Jan. 8th, 1892.

[FOR THE CRITIC.] FOR PRINCESS MAY.

For Princess May our loyal hearts are grieving, Since that dark day her royal lover died; She has a seriou sad past all believing.—
A widowed unid, who ne'er became a bride 'For Princess May—Oh, far beyond the others, Who bow their heads beneath the awful blow.—The parents', fisters' mourning and the bro'her's, We feel that her's is still the deepest wee.

From every heart where love has ever nestled,
Or sorrow found a sure abiding place;
From every soul who with hard fate has wrestled,
Ges forth to Princess May the silent grace
Of sympathy, so strong, but yet unspoken,
And prayers that He who all our sorrows bore
Will in his mercy soothe the heart that's broken,
And comfort send her from his boundless store.

A LEAP YEAR MEMORIAL.

From Sketches of Young Couples, by Charles Dickens.

An urgent remonstrance, etc., to the gentlemen of England, (being bachelors or widowers). The remonstrance of their faithful fellow-subject

Sheweth,-That Her Most Gracious Majesty Victoria, by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland Queen, Defender of the Faith, did, on the 23rd day of November last past, declare and pronounce to Her Most Honourable Privy Council, Her Majesty's Most Gracious intention of entering into the bands of wedlock. That Her Most Gracious Majesty, in so making known Her Most Gracious intention to Her Most Honourable Privy Council, as aforesaid, did use and employ the words, "It is my intention to ally myself in marriage with Prince Albert of Saxe-Coburg and Goths."

That the present is Bissextile, or Leap Year, in which it is held and considered lawful for any lady to offer and submit proposals of marriage to any gentleman, and to enforce and insist upon acceptance of the same under a certain fine or penalty-to wit, one silk or satin dress of the finest quality, to be chosen by the lady and paid (or owed) for by the gentleman.

That these and other the horrors and dangers with which the said

Bissextile, or Leap Year, threatens the gentlemen of England on every occasion of its periodical return, have been greatly aggravated and augmented by the terms of Her Majesty's said Most Gracious communication, which have filled the heads of divers young ladies in this realm with certain new ideas destructive to the peace of mankind, that never entered their imagination before.

That a case has occurred in Chamberwell, in which a young lady informed her papa that "she intended to ally herself in marriage" with Mr. Smith, of Stepney; and that another, and a very distressing case, has occured at Tottenham, in which a young lady not only stated her intention of allying herself in marriage with her cousin John, but, taking violent possession of her said consin, actually married him.

That similar outrages are of constant occurrence, not only in the capital and its neighbourhood, but throughout the kingdom, and that unless the excited femalo populaco be speedily checked and restrained in their lawless proceedings, most deplorable results must ensue therefrom; among which may be anticipated a most alarming increase in the population of the country, with which no efforts of the agricultural or manufacturing interests can possibly keep pace.

That there is strong reason to suspect the existence of a most extensive plot, conspiracy, or design, secretly contrived by vast numbers of single ladies in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and now extending its ramifications in every quarter of the land; the object and intent of which plainly appears to be the holding and solemnizing of an enormous and unprecedented number of marriages on the day on which the nuptials of Her Most Gracious Majesty are performed.

That such plot, conspiracy, or design, strongly savours of Popery, as tending to the discomfiture of the clergy of the established church, by entailing upon them great mental and physical exhaustion, and that such pop is plots are fomented and encouraged by Her Majesty's Ministers, which clearly appears—not only from Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State o for Foreign Affairs traitorously getting married while holding office under the crown—but from Mr. O'Connell having been heard to declare and avow that if he had a daughter to Marry, she should be married on the same day as Her said Most Gracious Majesty.

That such arch plots, conspiracies, and designs, besides being fraught with danger to the Established Church, and, (consequently) to the State, cannot fail to bring ruin and bankruptcy upon a large class of Her Majesty's subjects; as a great and sudden increase in the number of married men
