

teaches us the necessity for a more careful disinfection of the excreta of typhoid cases which in our cases certainly was not done.

W. T. CONNELL.

DR. W. T. CONNELL

Desires to announce to the Profession that he is prepared to make Microscopical, Chemical and Bacteriological Analysis, as may be required, of Morbid Tissues, Tumors, Serous or Purulent Effusions, Curettings, Sputum, Urine, Blood, Stomach Contents, Throat Membranes or Secretions. Urethral or Vaginal Discharges, and to apply Vidal's method for diagnosis of Typhoid Fever. He is also prepared to perform Autopsies, Medico-legal, or otherwise.

For information, methods of transmitting specimens, etc., address

PATHOLOGICAL LABORATORY,
QUEEN'S UNIVERSITY, KINGSTON.

Full information as to the Course and the Calendar may be obtained from

DR. HERALD, Secretary, Kingston, Ont.