

Lecture Tours by Writers and Playwrights

To promote a better knowledge of Canadian writing, the Department organizes international lecture tours for Canadian writers and playwrights in conjunction with The Writers' Union, The League of Canadian Poets, l'Union des écrivains québécois and The Guild of Canadian Playwrights.

For further information contact:

The Director
Cultural Affairs Division
Department of External Affairs
125 Sussex Drive
Ottawa, Ontario, K1A 0G2
Tel: (613) 992-9948

Annual Book Donations

Annual book donations are made to selected universities and cultural institutions abroad. The book lots include current works of all aspects of Canadian life.

The Department also distributes books to foreign libraries through its missions on behalf of the Canada Council as part of the Council's "Aid to Publishers" program.