

Borrowing Authority

● (1640)

Briefly, the second point I wish to make is that, setting aside that argument and the undertakings which they gave, they are now coming back to us, hat in hand, asking the Chair and the House to ignore previous procedure and to consider a borrowing Bill without any economic statements. That is the point of order I make to you, Madam Speaker. We cannot entertain the motion for leave without the economic statements upon which the Minister is asking for his borrowing Bill.

Madam Speaker: As I understand it, Hon. Members do not agree that the Minister may leave to introduce his Bill at this particular time on supplementary borrowing authority. Is the House ready for the question?

Some Hon. Members: Question.

Madam Speaker: All those in favour, please say yea.

Some Hon. Members: Yea.

Madam Speaker: All those opposed, please say nay.

Some Hon. Members: Nay.

Madam Speaker: In my opinion, the yeas have it.

And more than five Members having risen:

Madam Speaker: Call in the Members.

During the taking of the vote:

Some Hon. Members: Out.

Madam Speaker: I believe the Hon. Member may stay in the House, but I suppose since he arrived after the proceedings started, he cannot vote, but he can stay in the House.

● (1800)

And the Clerk proceeding to announce the result of the vote:

Mr. Lewis: Madam Speaker, I rise on a point of order. In view of the fact that the Hon. Member for Burin-St. George's (Mr. Simmons) has entered the House after the Whips took their seats, and in view of Standing Order 15(2), I would invite the Speaker to rule as to whether or not the Hon. Member for Burin-St. George's should be allowed to vote. We have no quarrel, Madam Speaker, with the fact he wears no necktie because, obviously, he is suffering some discomfort.

Mr. Simmons: Madam Speaker, I regret getting here after the bell stopped ringing. With the 50 Tory backbenchers absent, at least I am here.

Some Hon. Members: Oh, oh!

Madam Speaker: Would the Hon. Member for Burin-St. George's (Mr. Simmons) please tell the House whether he was in the House when the voting proceedings started.

Mr. Simmons: I was here—
