

Sturgeon Falls, Ont.,
6.4.21.

Gen. Sir Arthur Currie,
McGill University,
Montreal, Que.

#648727

Sir:

I enlisted on January 28th 1916 with the 159th Battalion, C.E.F., Sudbury, as a Private.

I went Overseas on October 28th 1916.

I was transferred to the 4th Can. Rly. Troops on Feb. 7th 1917 and went to France with them on Feb. 23rd 1917.

I was transferred to the Royal Flying Corps and gazetted a 2/Lt., on Feb. 7th 1918.

I graduated as a Flying Officer on May 9th 1918.

I went to 40 Squadron, R.A.F., B.E.F., France in August 1918 and remained with them
until Feb. 1919.

I came to Canada on March 8th 1919 on the Minnedosa. I paid my Fare from London to Liverpool and my passage to St. John, N.B. and my fare and meals from St. John to Sudbury, Ont.
It cost me $135⁰⁰. The English and Canadian Authorities refuse to pay it.

I went to France twice once for